*Editor Record and Guide:

On June 8, Jacob Siegelman filed a lien for $3,000 against John J. and Joseph W. Kierst, owners and contractors, premises 478 to 484 Cherry St. There is nothing whatever due to him. He abandoned his contract five weeks ago, and several notices have been given him to comply with his contract, which he has failed to do. He has been paid $200, which he was not entitled to under the contract. John J. Kierst.

BROOKLYN GOSSIP.

The Board of Public Improvements has authorized the Corporation Council to institute the proceedings required for the widening of Clinton avenue, between Gates and Willoughby avenues, by taking 20 feet from each side of the avenue.

Through the efforts of President Grout the Borough of Brooklyn is to have a separate topographical bureau, with offices located at or near the Borough Hall. Practically, there has not been a street laid out in this borough for a year, because the Topographical Bureau could not do the preliminary work. Although definite offices have not yet been found, yet the bureau has practically been obtained, and we will now have some of our new streets put through.

Continuing its policy of acquiring all available outlying property in Brooklyn, the Brooklyn Development Company has just purchased from John Shultz some twenty-five acres situated at the northwest corner of King's Highway and Ocean avenue, for a stated price of $2,500 per acre; also the Chauncey Marshall estate adjoining the Lindens on Coney Island avenue for a similar figure per acre. McNulty & Fitzgerald were the brokers in both these transactions.

These same brokers have also sold the Isaac Ryder farm, consisting of thirty-two acres, situated on Ryder's lane and Avenue U, and the J. W. and B. Kouwenhoven farms of thirty acres, on Avenue U, Nostrand avenue and Ocean avenue. The name of the purchaser was given as Lottie C. Hall, although it is supposed she is not the real party in interest; $2,500 per acre was the consideration stated.

Of interest in the auction rooms was the sale of the property occupied by the Irving Club, Nos. 70-82 Herkimer st, west of Nostrand avenue. Lack of harmony between the old and the new element among the members is said to be the reason for the sale, the club allowing the Brooklyn Trust Company to foreclose its mortgage. Louis A. Seitz, the owner of the property, was the purchaser, at $26,000, there being no other bid.

In regard to the report that Mr. Leonard Moody was seriously ill at his country home in Maine, it was stated at his office that such a report was without foundation. As was stated several weeks ago, Mr. Moody left the city because of ill health. He is now, however, very much better. At his office it was said that he might return from Maine any day, or might stay away until the fall.

Commissioner Guilfoyle, of the Building Department, has recommended that the woman's wing of the Raymond st jail be torn down, because of its dangerous condition. This report has been sent to the clerk of the county court for further action.

The petition made by the 30th Ward Improvement Association to re-open the driveway along the shore in front of Fort Hamilton has been refused by the Secretary of War. This driveway was closed about a year ago. The petition was not granted for the reason that fortifications have since been constructed there by the Engineering Department.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property each follows. Then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's Office to be recorded. Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of Judgments the names alphabetically arranged, and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency; (*) means not summoned; (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week and satisfied before the day of publication, do not appear in this column, but in list of Satisfied Judgments.

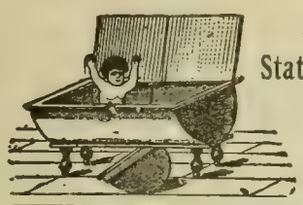
TRADE NOTES.

The Ellithorpe Safety Air-Cushion Co., that has been so well and favorably known for the past twenty years, have removed their offices from No. 136 Liberty street to the 12th floor of the Empire Building, 71 Broadway. They are now placing air-cushions under a number of prominent buildings throughout the country, the foremost of which are: Bourne Building, 85-89 Liberty St., Ernest Flagg, architect; private residence of Mr. O. G. Jennings, 15 E. 72d St., E. Flagg, architect; large apartment house, cor. 80th St and Columbus Av.; H. F. Cook, architect; private residence of Mr. F. W. Woolworth, 5th Av. and 80th St., C. P. H. Gilbert, architect; United Gas Improvement Building, Philadelphia, Wilson Bros., architects; West End Trust Co. Building, Philadelphia, Furness, Evans & Co., architects; Real Estate Trust Co. Building, Philadelphia, E. V. Seeler, architect; New Court House Building, Baltimore, Wyatt & Nolting, architects; Woolworth Building, Lancaster, Pa., Schickel & Ditmars, architects. The ten air-cushions under the ten Otis passenger elevators in the Empire Building are the most elaborate and extensive plant which the company has ever built.



Evidences multiply that the approaching season is not only to be one of unusual activity in building but that the cost of building will be somewhat higher than it has been of late years. Increased demand for materials always means higher prices, and materials of various kinds have sold for a long time at so small a profit that the dealers are likely to take advantage of even a slight improvement in the market to unite in demanding a reasonable increase in prices. Already the principal dealers in spruce lumber in the Boston market have combined to raise prices to a remunerative point, and their example is likely to be followed by dealers in other materials; while, although structural steel has not advanced much, as yet, the powerful combinations now being formed among the producing companies may be counted upon to use their monopoly, if they succeed in controlling the market, to force prices to the highest practicable point; and the experience of the building community with the old rolling-mill combination, which held prices at about three times the rates to which they fell when the combination was broken up, shows what may be feared from a new and stronger monopoly, utilizing the urgent demand which seems likely to appear next summer. One might think that a general advance in prices would check building, and that the consequent falling-off in demand would bring prices down again to their former level; but, in practice, the contrary is the case. When prices of materials begin to advance, the public, after a rather slow awakening to the facts of the change, assumes that they are going still higher, and bestirs itself to get its building projects carried into execution before any further rise takes place. The consequent increase in activity in building operations increases the demand for materials, and enhances prices still more, and a fresh portion of the public wakes up and rushes into the market, hoping to get its buildings done before the highest prices are reached; and in this way periods of high prices for materials are always characterized by extensive building operations.—Am. Architect.

Ingenieur und Architeckten Vereines" is given an illustrated account of the interesting plant installed in the great market buildings at Vienna, which, though there are other and as important plants elsewhere, possess features that render it worthy of notice. As the plant is intended merely to maintain a low temperature without reaching the freezing-point, thus providing storage-rooms cool enough to ensure the proper preservation of meats and other market articles, and at the same time avoiding the objections of too low a temperature, the indirect system is adopted, cooled air being distributed through the storage-chambers by a forced circulation. The refrigerating machines used in this especial case operate with carbonic acid gas, the gas being compressed to liquification and the heat of compression removed by water, after which the liquified carbonic acid is permitted to expand again to the gaseous state in coils placed in tanks of brine, the brine thus being lowered to the desired temperature, while the expanded gas is returned to the compressors to complete the cycle. It is evident that any of the accepted forms of refrigerating machines might be used in this manner, the choice depending upon local conditions. The cold brine, instead of being circulated through coils of pipe in the storage-chambers, is permitted to flow over a series of pans or trays arranged in layers in a special chamber, and the air is drawn through the spaces between the trays and thus cooled before being delivered to the storage-vaults. The circulating-fan, placed at one end of the chamber in which the cooling trays stand, draws the air from the storage-rooms through the spaces between the trays and delivers it again into the vaults, the same air thus circulating continuously, in a direction opposite to that of the cold brine over the trays.—Engineering Magazine.

The Growth of London.—Mr. Robert Vigers delivered his Presidential address at the Surveyors' Institution, Savoy street, recently. There was a large attendance. Speaking as a surveyor of fifty years' standing, he had, he said, seen the open spaces taken possession of by the extra 2,000,000 people who had had to be provided for during that time. The population within the administrative County of London had risen from 2,363,274 in 1851 to 4,232,118 in 1891, or about fifty-six persons to the acre. The number of inhabited houses was 306,064 in 1851, and 548,315 in 1891. The serious problem was how to provide a population increasing at the rate of about 500,000 in ten years with the proper means of internal communication. Speaking broadly, the bulk of the heavy traffic of London was between the north and south, or the termini of the great railways on each side of the river. The lighter traffic and the ebb and flow of the pedestrian tide was, on the other hand, mainly from east to west. They might wonder what the state of things would be in twenty or thirty years' time, and yet nothing had been done to mitigate the growing inconvenience. The widening of the footpaths had scarcely been considered. The system of tube railways would probably absorb some of the foot traffic, but their carrying-capacity would soon be reached, and wider roads and pavements and new arteries for wheeled traffic would become imperative. What had hitherto been done was mere tinkering, and an enormous expenditure would have to be incurred in further widening streets, like Oxford street, Holborn, the Strand, Fleet street, and Ludgate Hill, which were originally laid out for a population one-tenth the present size. The value of property had enormously risen in the city, and he had purchased for £73,000 property for which the grandfather of the vendors had given £1,500.—London "Times."

Vol. LXIII. JUNE 17, 1899. No. 1,631.

DOWN in Wall street a considerable trading element keeps things lively, but the alternating attacks and repulses of bulls or bears there cut very little figure in the broad situation. This has been improved by more hopeful reports from the Agricultural Department and other sources of crop information, and, most unfortunately, by the distressing news from Russia of crop failures in some provinces on top of famine, and the consequent rise in grain prices. Every day shows trade, commerce and manufactures to be flourishing more and more, because of which and of the immense reserves in the country, the exports of gold have excited little interest and no anxiety. According to custom, the report has been industriously circulated that the return of J. P. Morgan from his annual trip to Europe is to be followed by great things on the bull side of the market, but those who circulate this report are more probably those who have stocks they want to sell than those who want to buy. One of the most amusing and interesting things noticed this week is the way rival interests in the sugar trade have used the Industrial Commission for the purpose of bluffing each other. It is easy to see that all are tired of the fight they are carrying, but it does not appear that they see a way to effect a settlement, or to compromise their difficulties. Incidentally, the testimony, if such it can be called, produced a new political phrase, "Protection is the Mother of Trusts," which is likely to see hard service from now on until the close of the Presidential campaign next year. Some of the "Trusts" need a little protection just now in the stock market, and in the absence of public speculation are likely to need more, and still want it. Outside of investment bonds the tendency in all corporate securities is to work downward, but of bonds not nearly enough can be had.

POLITICALLY the world's situation continues from time to time to improve. President Loubet is proving himself the right man for France, and President Kruger of the Transvaal Republic seems inclined to grant directly to the Uitlanders the essentials of their demands, though ostensibly refusing to do so at the dictation of the British Colonial office. These things have a wholesome bearing on the commercial situation and help to maintain its strength. In general there is little change to report; business is active, and the money market holds itself in reserve to meet increased demands. In the last ten years that electric illumination has been in active competition with gas, it might be supposed that some injury had been done the latter. The actual facts, however, illustrate the theory that new discoveries only meet wants that old resources are unable to supply. In Great Britain, where the process of consolidating the gas companies has not made comparison as difficult as it has here, the gas companies are paying better dividends and are in greater investment demand than they were in 1889. An inquiry into this matter by the London "Economist," resulted in finding that investors in gas stocks who have retained their holdings for the past ten years have in every case secured a substantial increase in capital value. There appears to have been a loss in the amount of gas supplied for lighting, but that loss was more than compensated by the increased demand for it for cooking and heating purposes. Another return found in our exchanges, which has a practical application on the situation here, relates to the advances made in May in iron and coal shares on the Berlin market. They run from 2¼ to 55¾, and follow upon other advances which brought the prices of these stocks to a range from 120½ to 625. The whole movement in the shares is due to the extraordinarily prosperous condition of the coal and iron trades as a result of the suddenly developed growth of the demand for iron and steel for various purposes, particularly the structural. It appears that the differences between Austria and Hungary have been closed by the former practically conceding the claims of the latter. If this proves to be the case, however unsatisfactory it may be to Austria individually, it will remove a danger of financial disturbance of no small proportions. A report from the Governor of Madagascar, recently issued, shows how successful has been the policy of excluding all but French manufactures from that island. The final result has been that British merchants are closing up their houses there, and that Americans and Germans who wish to continue their trade with the country have begun to manufacture in France, the Germans going to the length of asking that the tariffs on imported goods be further increased in the interest of French manufactures. In opening the Argentine Congress last month President Rocca congratulated the country on its emergence from commercial depression, a condition proved, he asserted, by an increased foreign trade, and the springing into existence of new sources of production. The Treasury was in a good condition, and all the obligations of the country in the past year had been promptly met.

INDEBTEDNESS OF NEW YORK REALTY.

UNDER the stimulus of practical needs attempts are made from time to time to estimate the mortgage indebtedness of New York, meaning thereby New York as constituted prior to the application of the charter of 1897. The difficulties in the way of arriving at accurate figures are very considerable; because, not only would it involve great labor and large expense to compile the total from the records in the Register's office, but the result so obtained would be inaccurate inasmuch as they make no mention of amounts paid to reduce the sum originally secured. If it were known what aggregate sum is secured by all the mortgages now of record in New York County, that sum would be for this reason much in excess of the actual mortgage indebtedness. There are other reasons which would help to make the figures unsatisfactory, but it is not necessary to go into them. As a consequence of these difficulties whenever it is necessary to give figures of this mortgage debt to support arguments on the value of New York realty they are based upon inferences drawn from known circumstances surrounding it, and are at best generalizations rather than estimates. Some assistance in obtaining greater accuracy in future can, we think, be afforded by the record of satisfaction pieces published in our last issue. The chief difficulty in arriving at an exact total has been in the inability to make the proper deductions. We have for a long series of years the annual mortgage figures given in these columns, but the per contras have been missing, and still are in the accurate sense of the term; but something in the right direction has been gained, and what that something is we propose to show. Our reason for doing this is found in the importance of knowing what the proportions of indebtedness to capitalization are in real estate, as once discovered they will explain many circumstances surrounding that form of property, the reasons which have been rather vaguely surmised than understood.

Census reports supply, in the first place, something to begin upon. That of 1870 set down the mortgage debt of the then New York City, consisting of Manhattan Island only, at $463,876,140; that of 1880, when the 23d and 24th Wards, west of the Bronx River, had been added, at $589,106,335, and that of 1890 at $839,-684,530. Since that report was made the land east of the Bronx now included in New York County was included, bringing also with it some debt. In the eight years that elapsed between 1890 and the close of 1898, 118,371 mortgages on realty were filed, representing a total of $1,529,777,994; in the same period 94,282 (about) satisfaction pieces were also filed. We are authoritatively informed that about 1% of these relate to chattel mortgages, and that 2% would more than cover the necessary reductions to be made to give the number of satisfactions of realty mortgages. Making the larger of the two reductions there would remain a total of 92,397. The 118,371 new mortgages averaged $12,923 each If we allow the same average for the 92,397 satisfaction pieces we have a total of $1,194,046,431 of mortgages discharged, leaving a net increase of $335,731,563 to be added to the real estate indebtedness of 1890, and making the total outstanding at the opening of this year $1,175,416,093. If it cannot be claimed that this figure is an accurate one; it can be claimed, for reasons that will afterwards appear, that it gives more than a general impression of the actual state of the case. That being so, it is next in order to show what proportion the debt bears to value, or capitalization, and to see what bearing that has upon real estate in general. For these purposes the results already obtained are set in comparison with assessed and real values in the following table. It is taken that the assessed values of 1870, 1880 and 1890 represent 50% of the real values of those years, and those of 1899 60%, those being the generally though not officially accepted percentages:

Year.	Value.- Assessed.	Total.	Mortgage debt.	Per cent. of total.
1870.....	$742,201,825	$1,484,403,650	$463,876,140	31.0
1880.....	942,570,170	1,885,140,340	589,106,335	31.0
1890.....	1,398,290,007	2,796,580,014	839,684,530	30.0
1899.....	2,186,348,995	3,643,913,325	1,175,416,093	32.3
Increase, eight years.....	$788,058,988	$847,333,311	$335,731,563	2.3
	56.2%	30.3%	39.9%

Note.—Assessed values of 1870, 1880 and 1890, 50%, of 1899, 60% of total.

The results obtained by comparing the assessed and real valuations with the mortgage debt tend to confirm the tolerable accuracy of the latter. As the expenses of the city government of late years have increased it has been found necessary to advance tax values faster than real values have increased. But as the latter cannot be moved by arbitrary or forceful means the figures show a regular advance. We find that the proportion of growth from 1870 to 1890 is somewhat similar to that from 1880 to 1899. Notwithstanding that our mortgage figures are prepared in a totally different way we also find that their proportionate growth corresponds to that of real values, a fact that more than anything gives the latter their claim to acceptance. It is remarkable, too, that the percentage of total values that the mortgage figures render in all four years should so nearly agree, or that whatever discrepancy may arise in the last named year can be easily explained by recalling the changes that are known to be taking place in the manner of charging real property with mortgage debt. The tendency to borrow more largely is indicated not only in the proportions of the mortgage debt to the real values in 1899, but also in the greater ratio of increase that the debt shows in the past eight years compared with value. A mortgage debt of 32.3% may appear very light to those who have been struck by the large proportionate mortgages commonly made in speculative building operations, but it must be remembered that that is only one branch of the mortgage business, and that while 75% and sometimes more is commonly raised upon particular operations, the custom of loaners has been to limit their advances on property in investors' hands to 50%, and furthermore that there is a vast amount of improved and unimproved realty in New York County that is free and clear, facts that operate to lessen the proportions of the aggregate debt.

This low rate of mortgage indebtedness explains a good deal in the condition of the real estate market of New York that has hitherto puzzled many well-informed people. Presumably no one will dispute the assertion that the equity in a lightly mortgaged property is easily defended. It is owing to the fact that the financial conditions surrounding it were so strong that New York realty stood the test of five bad years—1893-97—and advanced promptly upon the return of good times. It is probable that in no industry in the country is the debt so small in comparison with capitalization. In railroads it is nominally 50%, but if for capitalization the word value is used the percentage would run up to 80 or 90. The smallness of its indebtedness has been one of the causes of confidence in New York realty, and will have further influence as the fact and its full bearing on values are more and more known and appreciated. One of the greatest objections to speculative properties is their tendency to come upon the market in mass the moment that confidence in the situation fails or money rates advance. This tendency lessens in accordance with the lessening burdens on the property. A conspicuous instance of this rule is New York investment realty, and the chief reason that it holds that position, is found in the smallness of its mortgage debt.

WAR TAX STAMP ON DEEDS.

The following is the text of a letter from Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue Robt. Williams, Jr., of Washington, to Collector Charles H. Treat, of this city. It lays down the ruling of the Treasury Department on the important matter of the stamp tax on deeds for part interest in realty. The decision that they be stamped pro rata is one that will commend itself to the public. In the case in point it made a difference to the heirs of $24.

This office is in receipt of a letter from Geo. W. Van Siclen, No. 141 Broadway, New York, in which this gentleman states that a Mr. Labberton dies intestate owning real estate. One of his heirs went to Porto Rico, and there executed a deed intended to be joined with the other heirs, conveying a house and lot in New York City worth $9,000. The share of the heir in Porto Rico would be $1,800. As it would take some time to get the deed there and back again, another deed, exactly the same, conveying the same house, was prepared and signed by the other four heirs, whose shares amount to $7,200 out of the $9,000. The two deeds are to be recorded to convey title to the grantee, and this gentleman asks whether each deed should be stamped in the amount of $9.00, or in whatever pro rata amount.

Please inform Mr. Van Siclen that the total tax on these two deeds is $9.00, and each instrument should be stamped according to its pro rata amount.

He further states that on the same state of facts for another piece of property, value $8,000, consideration $8,000, two similar deeds were executed, but the deed from Porto Rico by mistake of the copyist, contained the wrong name of a grantee; instead of sending that deed back to Porto Rico, or getting another one, the grantee who was named by mistake, upon request, executed another deed directly to the proper grantee, and this gentleman asks how should this latter deed be stamped.

In reply, you will inform him that the deed from the party in Porto Rico to the wrong grantee should be stamped on a pro rata basis of valuation.

The deed from the mistaken grantee to the one intended is also subject to tax, and should be stamped in the same amount.

This gentleman states that you informed him that each of these deeds referred to was subject to taxation, based upon the full value of the property described in the instrument, instead of on a pro rata basis.

Please correct this advice in conformity with the ruling contained herein.

TENEMENT HOUSES DISCUSSED.

There was a meeting recently at the office of the Charity Organization Society to discuss certain proposals presented by the Tenement House Committee of the Society for the amendment of the Tenement House Law. The views expressed have interest as the expression of the philanthropic element that has taken up the matter of the reform of the tenement house, and should be of value to the more practical element that is providing housing for thousands of the industrial poor annually in showing what pressure may be expected from the theoretical element. According to Robert W. de Forest, President of the Charity Organization Society, who was in the chair, this meeting was called agreeably to a proposal made in 1894, when the last amended Tenement House Law was under discussion that there should be a conference on this subject every five years. There were about sixty people present at the meeting and the following is a summary of the discussion made from the report in the official publication of the Charity Organization Society of the City of New York "Charities."

Richard Watson Gilder, Chairman of the Tenement House Commission of 1894, urged the necessity for a new tenement house investigation at the present time, and said his commission (of 1894) had recommended much more radical legislation than the Legislature had seen fit to grant.

Miss Lillian D. Wald, head worker of the Nurses' Settlement, No. 265 Henry street, and for seven years a resident of the tenement house district, said the houses that should have no compromise with "improvements" are innumerable, and their demolition is demanded by all who have knowledge of the only life possible within them. The greatest abomination of all the single double-decker, or dumb-bell shaped tenement built on a 25-foot lot still exists, and many are being put up. She laid the following specific complaints against the modern tenement house; The halls are too dark; the rooms too small; plumbing poor and offensive oders prevalent; inspection by sanitary department is poor,in their (Nurses'Settlements?) six years' experience they had only twice encountered an inspector; generally the houses were miserably built, in one, at the end of six months, woodwork, plumbing and gas fixtures were going to pieces. Sixteen women of her neighborhood, when consulted, especially desired to have the modern air-shaft taken away; that rooms in rear houses adjacent to closets should not be used in summer, and that glass panels should be inserted in hall doors to make halls lighter. Miss Ward concluded with the following statement: "It is generally believed that the average tenement house builder has only a small amount of money invested in the building, and to illustrate this, let me read you some figures of the cost and rentals of a tenement house in Monroe street. The building is a five-story house, with stores. The house cost $38,500; the equity was $7,000. There is a first mortgage on the property of $28,000 at 5 per cent., and a second mortgage of $3,500 at 6 per cent. The taxes are about $450 per year; water tax, $25; insurance, $40; interest on mortgages, $1,610; repairs, $300; coal for engine, $300; total, $2,725. The rentals are $3,800; net income, $1,075, or about 16 per cent. on the equity."

Dr. E. R. L. Gould considered the housing of the people the most fundamental of all the social questions they had to deal with, and that the solution of the problem lay in the work that combined philanthropy with sound business returns. Regarding the physical side of the question, he held that they must try to do away with that type of tenement which makes possible three things: First, the common use of sanitary conveniences; second, the long dark halls; third, the double-decker dumb-bell plan of construction, and the building of tenements on lots 25x100.

James B. Reynolds, the head worker of the University Settlement, claimed that the one thing that modification of the tenement house law should call for should be more light in both houses and yards. He wished it might be possible to try connecting all yards in a block by pulling down the dividing fences. As to height of tenement houses, if anything could be done in that line, he would prefer that the limit be five stories, instead of six. Bath-rooms should be established in every tenement house.

Other speakers addressed themselves to the support of the following recommendations for the amendment of the law, presented by the committee dwelling chiefly on the 25-foot lot, width of courts, height of building, bathing facilities, roof playgrounds and glass panels in hall doors.

Thornton F. Turner, of Hill & Turner, architects, said the suggestion as to the 25-foot lot was too severe and might prevent possibly advantageous plans from being used.

1. Every tenement house hereafter erected on a lot less than 40 feet wide, and every building hereafter altered to be used as a tenement house, and situated on a lot less than 40 feet wide, shall have all rooms, halls and stairs open directly on the street or yard; and such street and yard shall in all parts extend across the full width of the lot, but exterior balconies and stairs at the side of the lot not over six feet in width shall not be considered as diminishing the full width of the yard for the purposes of this act. The above provision shall not apply to corner buildings.

2. In all tenement houses hereafter erected, and in all buildings not now used as tenements, but hereafter used as tenements, or hereafter altered to be used as tenements, no window from any room, except water-closet and bathroom apartments, shall open on any court or shaft less than 8 feet wide in any part.

3. No tenement house hereafter erected, and no building not now used as a tenement house, but hereafter used as a tenement house, or hereafter altered to be used as a tenement house, shall exceed six stories in height, including mezzanino stories as separate stories, such height to be measured from the sidewalk line. But this provision shall not apply to such tenements as are fireproof throughout.

4. Every room in such buildings, except water-closets and bathrooms, shall contain at least 600 cubic feet of air space.

5. Every tenement house hereafter erected, and every building not now used as a tenement house, but hereafter used as a tenement house, or hereafter altered to be used as a tenement house, shall be provided with at least one bath tub or shower bath for the use of tenants, to which the tenants shall have access, in a separate apartment, and such bath tub or shower shall be provided with a proper and suitable supply of water, and shall be furnished with proper pipes and traps, constructed in accordance with the plumbing regulations of the Department of Buildings of the City of New York. Where there are more than 20 families in any such house there shall be provided an additional bath tub or shower bath for every 20 families or fraction thereof in excess of 20 families.

6. The first floor of every such building shall be constructed fireproof.

7. The walls of all tenement houses hereafter erected shall be carried up 3 feet 6 inches above the roof on all four sides; the roofs of such buildings shall be arranged with a suitable flooring, so that the same may be used as a playground, and such roof shall be constructed so as to sustain upon each superficial foot thereof a weight of ——— pounds.

8. No wooden building of any kind whatsoever shall be placed or built on the same lot with a tenement house.

9. The bulkhead doors of all tenement houses shall at no time be locked, but may be fastened on the inside with a hook or bolt.

10. It shall be mandatory upon the Corporation Counsel to immediately file a "lis pendens" in the County Clerk's office upon receipt from the Department of Buildings for prosecution of every violation of the tenement house laws and regulations.

11. In every tenement house hereafter erected, and in every building not now used as a tenement house, but hereafter used as a tenement house, or hereafter altered to be used as a tenement house, the stairway connecting the cellar or lowest floor with the floor next above, when placed within any such building, shall not be located in whole or in part underneath the staircase leading from the first story to the upper stories; no closet shall be constructed underneath any staircase, but the space thereunder shall be left entirely open, and kept free from encumbrance.

12. Every building used as a tenement house in which the halls are not light enough to easily read in on all floors, shall have each door leading from the rooms to the public halls provided each with ground wire glass panels of an area of not less than ———. It shall be the duty of the Board of Health to see that this provision is enforced within 90 days after the passage of this act. Any person failing to comply with this provision within 90 days after its passage shall incur a penalty of five dollars a day for each day that such violation exists.

13. In every tenement house hereafter erected, and in every building not now used as a tenement house, but hereafter used as a tenement house, or hereafter altered to be used as a tenement house, all interior shafts shall be fireproof, and all openings to the same shall be provided with fireproof, self-closing doors.

14. In all such buildings stud partitions which rest directly over each other shall run through the floor beams and rest on the plate of the partition below, and shall have the studding filled in solid to the depth of the floor beams with suitable incombustible materials.

15. The cellar floor of all such buildings shall be concreted with concrete not less than 3 inches thick.

16. When a kitchen range or stove (consuming either coal or gas) is placed within 12 inches of a wooden stud partition, the studs shall be cut away and framed 2 feet higher and 1 foot wider than the range, and filled in to a line with said stud partition with brick or fireproof material and plastered thereon.

THE REAL ESTATE BROKER A NECESSITY.

A correspondent sends us the following philosophic conception of the value of the real estate broker as a medium for consummating the respective wishes of buyer and seller:

"Many will doubtless question the accuracy of the above caption and declare that if the real estate broker be a necessity he is but a disagreeable one. His importunity, persistency, and irrepressibility, are cited as proverbial. It is even hinted that he has an elastic conscience which, by the way, is not altogether uncommon in other walks of life. Such statements as these are true or false, according to individual experience, but let us inquire if in any material respect he is of advantage to his fellows. The admission must be made that, through his agency, a large volume of business is transacted, and as a result of which money is kept in circulation that would otherwise remain dormant and unproductive. Without the broker as an inter-mediary or go-between, but comparatively few parcels of realty would change owners. Principals, as a rule, hold aloof from each other, fearful that they might disclose their real sentiments—the one his anxiety to sell, the other his willingness to buy. Take, for example, a supposititious case, that of our old friend John Jones, who has lived for thirty years past in his fine house on lower 5th avenue, but who now desires to sell it, that he may follow the wave of society that is fast locating itself on upper 5th avenue. Now this estimable man, notwithstanding his name and lineage, has the same elements of human nature as most other men have, and although anxious to sell his property he considers it bad policy to let that fact be generally known. So he has recourse to his broker whom he tells (confidentially) that if he were offered a good stiff price for his house he might be induced to consider it. If his broker is a man of some experience and average acumen, he will not fail to read a deeper meaning between the lines than in the lines themselves and on the strength of this will offer J. J.'s residence right and left until he finds a purchaser for it, who buys, as he asserts, simply to please his wife. Men of this class are known to every experienced broker. They would never get close enough together to consummate a deal without the aid and co-operation of a third party. The broker's business permits, however, of a broader view, and if that be taken it will be seen that he is not only a necessity but a practical philanthropist besides. Think for a moment of the number of lots that are constantly being sold through his instrumentality, for building purposes, and then estimate, if you can, the advantage that labor derives from these operations. From the Italian who excavates the cellar to the skilled artisan employment is given. The money that is paid for wages alone reaches and benefits every channel of trade. Therefore, under the present conditions of the real estate market the broker is an important and indispensable factor."

THE REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Real Estate Exchange and Auction Room, Limited, has been called for 1 p. m. of Thursday, July 6th, to determine upon the future of the Exchange, the disposition of the proceeds of the sale of the property of the Exchange, and such other general questions relating to the Exchange in its present condition, as should go before the meeting. Stock transfer books will be closed from and after June 26th. A special meeting of the stockholders has also been called for the same date, but at 1.30 p. m., for the purpose of voting upon a proposition to reduce the capital stock of the Exchange from $500,000, consisting of 5,000 shares of $100 each, to $2,500, consisting of 5,000 shares of 50c. each. The object of this reduction is that, while distributing the proceeds of the sale of the Exchange's property, its charter can be kept intact awaiting future developments. The place of meeting is, of course, No. 59 Liberty street.

THE LIBRARY BUREAU.

We refer our readers again to the advertisement in another column of the Library Bureau's system of keeping real estate records. A number of real estate firms have lately installed this system in their offices, and speak in the highest terms of praise of it. This company have given a great deal of thought to real estate conditions, and have produced a card index system which leaves nothing to be desired. It it compact, extremely handy, and puts the record of every conveyance and mortgage in place, so that it can be found as readily as a word in a dictionary. Send for particulars to the Library Bureau, No. 280 Broadway. It is worth investigation.

THE "MACEY" SYSTEM.

The "card index" system is one of the most important, if not the most important, additions made in recent years to the equipment of offices. Its great advantages lie in its applicability to all sorts and conditions of use, and the economy in time and greater clearness it effects in the records of every business. Wherever it has been used its advantages have been demonstrated, and the mercantile and manufacturing establishments that have adopted it would as soon revert to antiquated methods of bookkeeping as to abandon it. Real estate men have been slow to apply the card index system to the records of their affairs, but now they are coming to it, and among the systems that deserve consideration is the "Macey," the New York office of which is No. 156 Broadway.

With the exception of Nos. 520 and 522 Broadway, old buildings, on plot 50x100, near Spring st, purchased by the New York Realty, Bond, Exchange and Trust Co., the brokerage business of the week has been of the commonplace order, typical of the summer season. It is a satisfaction to note that the number of transactions shows little tendency toward a decrease, while rumors of important negotiations are as cheap and plentiful as ever. The total number of transactions reported below is 47, with considerations given in 6, and amounting to $426,000. Corresponding figures for last week were 65, 8 and $414,000, respectively, and for the same week last year, 38, 21 and $1,035,100, respectively.

Voluntary auction offerings this week consisted almost exclusively of vacant land, particularly suburban building sites, few of which possessed much attraction either to the speculator or the home builder. Of the four improved parcels put up, two East Side tenements were sold at good prices, as was to have been expected, while two flats, elsewhere located, failed to elicit bids satisfactory to the owners. The most interesting voluntary offering of vacant land comprised eighteen lots on Morningside Heights, put up by D. Phoenix Ingraham, for the Central National Bank. Four lots on the southeast corner of Amsterdam avenue and 118th street were bought by Isaac A. Hopper, the corner lot for $24,000, and the inside lots for $13,300 each. Five lots on the south side of 118th street, 100 feet east of Amsterdam avenue, were purchased by the Globe Realty Co. for $10,000 each, and four adjoining lots went to Heilner & Wolf, at $9,900 each. The southwest corner of Morningside avenue and 118th street went to Isaac A. Hopper at $23,500. These prices not proving satisfactory, the remaining lot on 118th street, with three on Morningside avenue, were withdrawn. The issue of this sale is sufficiently accounted for by the lateness of the season, inasmuch as it would be impossible to finish any constructional improvement in time for the fall renting. Of the 174 lots comprising Lewis Grove, at Lowerre Station, offered by William M. Ryan, only 20 were sold, at prices ranging from $350 to $800. The offering by John S. Mapes of 33 lots on and near Boston road, Bronx and Pelham Parkway, and Williamsbridge road, was partly withdrawn under circumstances which illustrate the tendency of owners to expect at auction the very top prices obtainable at private contract. Fifteen inside lots, on Thwaites place, were sold for a total of $5,680. These very lots were bought by the present seller in 1889 for $2,300. The net profit realized on them is $1,700 over and above taxes and interest at 6 per cent. Nevertheless, over half the offering was withdrawn on the ground that prices were not satisfactory. Since the sale an offer of $1,500 each has been rejected for four lots on Bronx and Pelham Parkway, which sold in 1889 for $290 and $345. The ninety acres on McLean, Kimball and Jerome avenues, Yonkers, offered in voluntary partition by William M. Ryan, were withdrawn at $224,000. Among the foreclosure sales also was a large parcel of vacant land, 133 lots, at Van Cortlandt Heights, sold by Peter F. Meyer to E. F. Searles, a party in interest, for $115,000. According to the provisions of the judgment the lots were first offered individually and then in bulk. Five lots only secured bids under separate offers, a fresh proof of the inexpediency of this mode of selling. Apart from the Van Cortlandt Heights lots and the Hudson River Tunnel, the foreclosure offerings, few in number, consisted almost exclusively of the common run of flats and tenements, and were bought for the most part by the plaintiffs.

Richard V. Harnett & Co. make the interesting announcement that they will dispose of the important piece of investment property, No. 23 Park place, and No. 20 Murray street (running through), at peremptory sale, on Wednesday next. The plot is 28.8x150, and the improvements consist of two 5-story basement and cellar stone buildings. On the same day they will also sell at auction the dwelling, No. 264 West 23d street, and on the following day, of No. 317 Front street, forming the southwest corner of Gouverneur slip. The details of these sales will be found in our business pages, or can be obtained with maps of the auctioneers, at Nos. 71 and 73 Liberty street.

Jacob Cole Real Estate Co., Jas. L. Brumley, auctioneer, announce the sale on Wednesday next, of a considerable amount of improved and unimproved property, located on some of the leading thoroughfares of Brooklyn, to close out estates. Particulars will be found in our business pages, or will be supplied by the auctioneer, at No. 189 Montague st, Brooklyn, where the sale will take place. It will be noticed that the Eastern Parkway lots form part of the old Brooklyn baseball grounds. This location is a desirable one for the manufacturers.

There are few brokers who are willing to confess that the past week was not a dull one. With the exception of those who make a specialty of country property, there have been few who have accomplished much. The early approach of summer weather is responsible for a lack of activity in a market which in the spring promised a strong June trade. The auction sales have been of the usual character, with a small attendance and, in foreclosures, a frequent buying-in by the plaintiff. This drop in the market has been a great disappointment to the bull element, which predicted great things for the early summer. This element is still hopeful of a fairly active hot weather trade, with a big upward movement in the fall. The largest single transaction of the week was the sale, through McNulty & Fitzgerald, to ex-Secretary Wm. C. Whitney, of some 75 acres on Garretson's Creek, in the 32d Ward, for a stated consideration of $130,000.

The warm weather has emphasized the need of some such park as the one proposed at Coney Island. Those interested in the scheme have not been idle. A map of West Brighton, including the land between Sea Gate and the present holdings of the Park Department, Gravesend Bay and the Ocean, has been submitted to the Board of Public Improvements. This map was made by experts, who also made a report as to values. According to this report, the land which it is proposed to take is assessed at about two million dollars. The property-owners, however, are demanding some eight million dollars. This latter amount is considered an absurdly high figure by those acquainted with real estate on the Island. Condemnation proceedings, if any are instituted, will soon reveal the exorbitance of these demands.

During the week permits have been issued for the erection of five 3-sty brk dwellings, to be located on the south side of Pierrepont st, 50 feet west of Hicks st. The total cost will be $100,000 and the buildings will be of the most modern construction. This plot of ground was formerly the site of the old dwelling house of the late John T. Martin. At his death the property passed into other hands, and the house torn down, to allow the erection of five 20-foot houses. Hardly had the cellars been enclosed when the property was sold to pay liens, and for a long time no further work was done. There is a steady demand in the Heights section of the city for moderate-sized homes of modern construction, and there are very few houses of this description to meet this demand. To real estate men acquainted with the conditions in the 1st Ward, it is apparent that what this section requires is more houses similar to these five, rather than those of larger dimensions, but in poor repair.

Evidence of values of Queens County vacant property was afforded by the results of the sale of the J. M. Miller tract, at Queens, L. I., on Saturday last. This property is located directly opposite the new public school, erected at a cost of $50,000. The lots at the corner of Springfield road, and the Hempstead and Jamaica road, both of which are macadamized and supplied with water mains and electric lights, brought $205 each. This was the top figure paid for any of the lots. The other lots on the Hempstead and Jamaica road brought from $105 to $185 each, while the remaining lots on Springfield road were sold at $90 to $140 each. The threatening weather kept the attendance down, and the bidding was practically confined to the local operators.

The Good Roads Association of Brooklyn and Long Island are advocating the building of a road through Cypress Hills, which would connect the Highland Boulevard with the new Forest Park. It is now necessary for cyclists to go by way of Jamaica av, which route gives them a number of hills to climb.

The Board of Public Improvements has fixed June 28 as the date for a public hearing in the matter of the extension of Silliman place, from 2d to 3d avs.

In consequence of the complaints from residents of the Dyker Heights section, the work of laying the sixteen-inch distributing main through Avenue W and 86th st, to 25th av, is to be started at once. It is expected that this work will be completed in about two weeks.

The Supreme Court of Kings County has just appointed commissioners to open Howard av, from the Eastern Parkway Extension to Pitkin av.

The Hanson Place Baptist Church Society has decided to erect a new church edifice at Hanson place and South Portland av, at a cost of $200,000. It is proposed to have the building ready for dedication by October, 1904, which is the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Society.

The Greenwood Baptist Church has obtained permission from the court to sell its church property, at 15th st and 4th av, for a consideration of $15,000. The buyer is the Norwegian Evangelical Free Church. The Greenwood Church will then buy a site at 7th av and 6th st, for which they expect to pay $30,000.

Grand av, No. 628, west side, south of St. Marks av, 21x100, vacant; seller, Ellen T. Martin; buyer, Louis Biccalo; consideration, $1,050; brokers, Redmond Brothers.

Stagg st, No. 332, southwest corner of Bogart st, 3-sty frame store and flats, 13.2x75x28.6x76; sellers, William and Joseph Schut; buyer, The Brown Realty Co.; consideration, $6,000.

Huntington st, No. 163, near Court st, 3-sty brk dwelling; seller, a Mr. Hogan; buyer, Walter R. Johnson; consideration, $6,100; brokers, Burrill Brothers.

43d st, No. 137, 2-sty frame house; seller, Mary F. Martin, in exchange for No. 742a Union st, 2½-sty and basement brownstone front dwelling; broker, Otto F. Peterson.

Throop av, No. 547; seller, The American Baptist Home Mission Society; buyer, Allen W. Smith. The latter will convey to the Society the 3-sty tenement house, No. 252 West 14th st, Manhattan, in exchange for the Brooklyn property and a cash value of $19,500.

Meeker av and Monitor, Herbert and North Henry sts, block, with 2-sty brk stable thereon; seller, Brooklyn City R. R. Co.; price, $15,000; brokers, McNulty & Fitzgerald. It is said buyer, whose name is not given, may convert building for manufacturing purposes.

President st, No. 256, south side, between Court and Clinton, 3-sty and basement brownstone dwelling, 21x50x100; seller, Mrs. O. W. Faris; buyer, T. H. Cullum; brokers, The Leonard Moody Real Estate Co.

Lewis av, northeast corner of Chauncey st, 20x95, vacant; seller, Francis L. Maher; buyer, C. F. Swimm; brokers, The Leonard Moody Real Estate Co.

Nassau st, No. 193, north side, between Bridge and Gold sts, 3-sty frame dwelling, 20x50x100; seller, William Murphy; buyer, S. Gottlieb; consideration, $4,000; brokers, The Leonard Moody Real Estate Co.

Lorimer st, No. 526, east side, 360 south Norman av, 3-sty frame apartments; seller, estate of Jane Bothwell; buyer, John Cook; consideration, $3,000.

The Haberman Manufacturing Co. (tinware) has received a grant of land and water in Maspath and Newtown Creeks, fronting on their Laurel Hill factory.

REAL ESTATE NOTES.

John J. Kavanagh was the broker in the sale of No. 15 East 73d st, which was reported in our last issue.

Thomas W. Folsom, of Folsom Brothers, sailed this week on the "St. Louis" for an extended tour of Europe.

L. J. Phillips & Co. were the brokers in the sale of the southwest corner of Central Park West and 105th st, reported in our last issue.

Walter A. Pease, Jr, of the well-known firm of Pease & Elliman, was married on June 22, to Miss Martha P. Rodgers, of Pittsburg, Pa., and is now on his wedding tour.

Abraham Boehm, of Boehm & Coon, states that his firm have not sold the southeast corner of West End av and 82d st, and that no negotiations for its sale are pending.

Mary A. Goodspeed and Anna S. Hemphill are the buyers of Nos. 3 and 5 West 18th st, the sale of which was reported in our issue of May 6. They give in exchange the 5-sty building, No. 87 Fulton st, running through to No. 88 Ann st.

Alfred Seton, Jr., real estate broker, has moved his offices to Room 1, in the Trinity Building, No. 111 Broadway. Mr. Seton's new offices are located directly above the real estate auction room, and are, therefore, peculiarly well adapted for the business in which he is engaged.

The formal sales, under foreclosure, in New York and in New Jersey, of the Hudson River Tunnel, were effected this week after several adjournments. Peter F. Meyer was the auctioneer in this State. The only bidder was the legal representative of the holders of defaulted bonds, who purchased pursuant to a plan of reorganization.

Schmeidler & Bachrach are active operators in realty. Recently we reported the purchase by them of the southwest corner of Broome and Mangin streets, old buildings, on lot 25x75, and this week a sale by them appears in our "Gossip" column. The facilities of their commodious offices at No. 31 Nassau street have been increased by the addition of a telephone; the number is 2784 Cortlandt street.

According to Assistant U. S. District Attorney D. Frank Lloyd, all the owners interested in the Bowling Green site have now agreed with the Government upon terms of sale, the terms accepted by the Cooper estate, the Lutheran Home, and the Seccomb-Wallace interests being "substantially the same" as those accepted by the other owners. (See Record and Guide of April 29.) The Government expects to have the fee by July 1, or very soon thereafter. To dispose of the claims of some of the tenants, who demand awards based on the amount of business which they do, instead of on the market value of their leases, and to extinguish the city's title to the alleyway on the site, condemnation commissioners will be appointed, a motion to that effect being about to be made to-day.

Max Marx informs us that he has sold all the balance of the lots purchased by him at auction recently on Sedgwick, Lind, Lawrence avenues, and Graham square, as follows: To George H. Moody, lots Nos. 1 and 2 on Sedgwick av; lots 83 and 85, on Graham square; lots 90, 93, 94 and 95, on Graham square; lot 143, from Lawrence av to Graham sq; to William Sporborg, lots 3-8 on Sedgwick av; lots 140-142 on Lawrence av, running through to Graham square; to Samuel E. Jacobs, lots 9 and 11, on Sedgwick av; lots 18-23 on Sedgwick av; lots 118-120 on Lind av; to Leon S. Mendel, lots 12, 13 and 17, on Sedgwick av; lots 129 and 132, on Lind av; to Max G. Heidelberg, lot 86 on Graham square; lots 97-102, on East 167th st; lots 128 and 134 on Lind av.

Sanitary inspectors sent out by Superintendent Roberts, of the Health Board, on Saturday, visited 729 tenements on the lower East Side, going into 7,335 apartments, and finding 33,870 persons living in these apartments. The average number of rooms occupied by one family was four, and the average number of persons living in these apartments 4.6, or an average of 1.1 to each room. This would indicate that the tenements are not so overcrowded as has been reported. It is further reported that the general condition of the tenements visited was good.

Questions and Answers

WAR TAX ON MORTGAGES.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Is it necessary when filing mortgages to put on revenue stamps, as I have not done so heretofore?

Answer.—It is when the face of the mortgage exceeds $1,000. Tax is 25c. for each $500 in excess of $1,000 or part thereof.—Editor Record and Guide.

MECHANIC'S LIEN.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

V and K, framers, agreed to do a job of framing, and K went away from the job and didn't come back, but put on a lien for $95 before the job was done, or even before a payment was due. Kindly advise me if he is entitled to the $95 or any part thereof?

Answer.—No.—Law Editor.

PUMP AND TANK.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

My mother owned two flats adjoining each other, with a pump in cellar of one and tank on roof of both to supply both houses with water. A year before her death she sold the one with pump in cellar agreeing to pay $5 per month for pumping water. Executor pays every month since the $5 which the other landlord sends a bill for every month, I have found out since through an architect that it is not necessary to pump any water into the tank, and know that said landlord has not used pump for pumping water in over a year, and still not in use. 1. Can we compel him to return us moneys so charged, for, while not having pumped in over a year, and other damages for his doing so. How can we collect same if we have redress? He still collects his $5 every month. 2. Is it necessary to notify him, or can we refuse to pay any longer, without doing so? 3. Can he hold the estate for the agreement made by my mother, if we refuse to pay any longer?

Answer.—1. You can sue him for the $5 per month when there was no pumping done. 2. It would be well to notify him to discontinue. 3. Not if you notify him that the contract is at an end.—Law Editor.

ASSESSMENTS PAID.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Has the Franklin avenue widening been confirmed and paid for? Let me know any other assessment which is to be confirmed in the near future in the neighborhood of 169th street and Franklin avenue.

Answer.—Your question is too general. You had better consult Comptroller's office as to whether any assessments are due and unpaid on the particular property you are interested in.—Editor Record and Guide.

REPORT UNFOUNDED.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Is there any truth in 169th street being widened 25 feet on the north side, east and west of 3d avenue?

Answer.—We are officially informed that there is no truth in the report mentioned.—Editor Record and Guide.

The Building Trades

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

In general characteristics the material market is unchanged this week. The arrivals of North River brick were again liberal, 74 barges; but prices were unaffected by that fact, owing to the strength of the demand, which absorbed all supplies. Lime is still in limited supply. There is no change to report in cements, except that Portland is firmer. Large lots of nails are getting scarce, but quotations are not changed; demand is very good. Arrivals of lath amounted to only about 1,000,000, and prices were $2.25 to $2.35. A moderate rally in spirits was to be noticed among naval stores, quoted figures being 39@39½c. for machines, and 38½@39c. for Southerns. Conditions and prices in other building material market staples call for no comment, remaining as last reported. In Lumber, while no new advances have been made, dealers are evidently determined to maintain the advances already made.

OF INTEREST TO THE BUILDING TRADES.

The Board of Directors of the Builders' League will meet on Thursday, 8 p. m., in the League rooms, No. 74 West 126th street.

William W. Kenly, Edwin Outwater, Leonard K. Prince and John J. Radley, members of the Building Trades Club, are summering at Arverne, L. I.

Architectural Iron Workers will meet at the Building Trades Club on Monday next at 8 p. m., and the Mason Builders' Arbitration Committee at the same place on Thursday at 8 p. m.

H. T. Richardson, senior member of the firm of the Richardson, Boynton Company, returned last week from an extended tour through Europe. Mr. Richardson has been away since February last.

Maximillian Lewinson, of the firm of Lewinson & Just, consulting engineers and contractors, sailed last Saturday on the steamer "Lucania" for a trip through Europe. Mr. Lewinson expects to return to this city about August 1st next.

E. Stebbins Manufacturing Co., of Springfield, Mass., is reported to have gone into the American Plumbing and Lead Supply Co., which has been organized with a capital stock of $35,000,000, with power to increase it to $50,000,000.

G. A. Schellenger, architect, who for 15 years past has had his offices at No. 128 Broadway, has taken a handsome suite of rooms at No. 130 Fulton street, where he is now prepared to receive clients. W. Renwick, late of the firm of Renwick, Aspinwall & Owen, has opened an office at Nos. 39 and 41 West 27th st. Richard Lamb, electrical engineer, has removed to No. 97 Reade st.

The work of razing the old structure at No. 3 Park row, and No. 5 Ann street, was begun this week, preparatory to the erection of a 6-story building, from plans by R. H. Robertson, No. 160 5th avenue. This property, it will be remembered, was bought in April by the owners of the Park Row Syndicate Building, with a view to perpetuating existing conditions of light as regards that building. The numerous building operations begun in the commercial and financial districts since the first of May, of which this is the latest, are giving an appearance of old-time activity to downtown realty.

An informal dinner was given at the Building Trades Club last week by Lovell H. Carr to a party of prominent New Jerseymen attending the Mecca Temple of the Shrine at the Madison Square Garden. The delightful coolness and handsome appointments of the club rooms on the twelfth floor of the Townsend Building, as well as the commanding view out over the city, made a distinctly favorable impression upon the guests, who comprised Governor Foster M. Voorhees, Congressman C. N. Fowler, Assemblyman Geo. A. Squire, Surrogate George Parrott, John C. Rankin, ex-Mayor of Elizabeth, and Messrs. Sanford, Schuyler, Ricker and Henry.

The Stone Cutters' Society, the union which maintains an arbitration agreement with the Stone Trade Association, has increased the number of buildings struck by its fitters from thirty-five to fifty-two, as a consequence of the stand taken by the Stone Cutters' Society, which stand is in the nature of a counter-strike, and was explained in this column last week; members of the opposing union, the Journeymen Stone Cutters' Association, refused to stop work on two buildings which their delegate attempted to add to those originally struck by the last-mentioned union. If the unions are allowed to fight this matter out, the trouble is bound to end speedily in a victory for the Stone Cutters' Society, to the permanent benefit of the building trades.

Comptroller Coler will sell, on July 5, bonds to the amount of $10,025,000, distributed for purposes as follows: Docks and ferries, $2,000,000; schools, Manhattan and Bronx, $1,700,000; schools, Brooklyn, $1,800,000; schools, Queens, $500,000; schools, Richmond, $100,000; East River Bridge, $250,000; 149th street bridge, $1,000,000; Appellate Division Court House, $375,000; New York Public Library, $500,000; Museum Natural History, $300,000; Department of Correction, $650,000; improvement of parkways, $100,000; Riverside Drive extension to Boulevard Lafayette, $100,000; street cleaning, $300,000; Croton aqueduct, $350,000.

Jacob A. King, the well-known real estate agent of No. 491-493 Broadway, has been appointed Branch Manager of the Fire Association of Philadelphia and the Phoenix Insurance Co., of Hartford, Conn. The Fire Association's statement, just published, shows it has a capital of $500,000 and assets of $6,430,-863.38. Mr. King has opened an office at No. 64 West 125th street for his fire insurance business, so as not to interfere with his real estate clients' interests. Builders who require an experienced real estate fire underwriter to look after their insurance should either have Mr. King call on them or send their own broker to him, as he pays full commission on all insurance placed by licensed brokers, the same as the downtown offices do.

The bonds held up in the Council, though long needed for the various works mentioned, are the following: Long Island water supply, July 11, 1898, $570,000; Harlem River Driveway, July 27, 1898, $305,000; Croton Water Fund, Oct. 31, 1898, $250,000; Additional water fund (sanitary protection), Jan. 24, 1899, $500,-000; Houston Street Park, Jan. 24, 1899, $10,000; New Hall of Records, Feb. 3, 1899, $2,100,000; Repaving streets, Feb. 3 ,1899, $2,000,000; High School bonds, Feb. 3, 1899, $3,428.45; Schoolhouse Fund No. 2, Feb. 3, 1899, $371; Newtown Creek Bridge (Vernon avenue), March 17, 1899, $644,495.63; Newtown Creek Bridge (Grand street), April 21, 1899, $200,000; Public park, 111th and 114th streets, 1st avenue and East River (improvement of), April 21, 1899, $65,000; Hester Street Park, April 21, 1899; $10,000; Fund for street and park openings (to replenish), May 3, 1899, $1,849,107.32; Fire Department bonds, May 8, 1899, $800,000; New East River Bridge, May 25, 1899, $500,000; Public park, 111th and 114th street, 1st avenue and East River (awards), May 25, 1899, $365,250; Fund for street and park openings (to replenish), May 25, 1899, $207,520.64; total, $9,880,-173.04. The dates given are those of the approvals by the Board of Estimate.

The Architectural Metal Works, I. Moritz, proprietor, of 1192 and 1194 Second avenue, has an enviable record for reliable and prompt work. Numerous contracts executed for the leading architects and builders in and around New York are models in the way of construction and finish, and entitle the Architectural Metal Works to a place among the leaders in the business. Orders for skylights, cornices, roofing, corrugated iron and copper work are always executed in a workmanlike manner and with promptness, a feature which is of great importance. Their machinery is of the latest patterns, and their facilities for handling business is extensive. Recently completed work includes a powder depot for the U. S. Government at Lake Dunmark, N. J., after plans by Architect J. Knox Taylor; the Hunt Building at West Brighton, S. I., executed for the Berlin Bridge Co.; Pabst Brewery on West 48th and 49th streets, L. P. Smith, architect; an addition to public school at Williamsbridge for H. Probst, contractor; dwelling No. 20 East 64th street, John H. Duncan, architect; flats on West 96th street for Robert Wallace, builder, and dwellings on West 102d street for Peter Wagner, builder. From Mr. Wallace and Mr. Wagner the Architectural Metal Works has contracts for dwellings on West 103d and 95th streets, respectively. Other contracts on hand include the new 8-story structure corner of Broadway and Warren street, J. B. Snook & Son, architects; No. 67 Thompson street, Boring & Tilton, architects, and drill room addition to the new Berkeley School, on 49th street and Madison avenue, C. C. Haight, architect. The Architectural Metal Works telephone call is No. 164 79th street.

Three Propositions

AND A FOURTH.

I. No man can remember Six hundred odd pages of Building Law.

II. All Architects, Engineers, Builders, Real Estate Owners, etc., must Constantly refer to some volume containing all the Laws relating to Buildings.

III. Naturally they will turn to the Standard publication, which is also the easiest to understand, because it is the only Book of all the Laws that is Illustrated, Annotated, Cross-Indexed and Supplied with Marginal Notes so that even the layman can understand it and the Professional can find any point he is looking for as readily as a word in a Dictionary. This is the RECORD AND GUIDE'S new "Building Laws of Greater New York," now preparing.

IV.

A Standard Volume in use as a necessary working tool in every Architect's, Engineer's and Builder's office; referred to daily, year in and year out.

Must be an Exceptional Opportunity for Advertisers.

It provides all the requirements of a good advertising medium.

It goes to your customers or to those who ought to be your customers, and it goes to no others. No waste. It goes to your customer at the right moment—when he is busy with Plans and Specifications. It goes to your customer because he must have it—a necessary working tool of his office.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of Judgments the names alphabetically arranged and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency; (*) means not summoned; (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week and satisfied before day of publication, do not appear in this column, but in the list of Satisfied Judgments.

FRINK'S CLUSTER REFLECTORS

Are far superior in light-giving qualities to the ordinary porcelain reflector, and the cost is but little more. They are very largely used in stores, banks, offices, schools, hospitals, depots and public buildings. Book of light and estimate free.

Messrs. Toch Brothers' "R. I. W." Damp Resisting Paint, which, when applied to iron-work, forms a positive preventative against rust, and placed on walls allows the direct application of plaster, doing away entirely with lathing and furring, is meeting with a great deal of favor. Numbers of architects are specifying this paint, and it is being used in a great many buildings now in course of construction. Among these may be mentioned the Clark & Selfridge flats, on West 36th street, and the buildings on the northwest corner of Columbus avenue and 80th street. In the last-named may be seen a demonstration of the use of this paint, both in the preservation of limestone from staining, and in the application of the plaster directly over the paint on the walls.

FIRE PREVENTION IN TENEMENTS.

In all our large cities to-day the three great factors in the protection and preservation of life and property are the Police, the Health Board and the Fire Department. All three of these have been raised to their highest efficiency. As a result we have conquered disease, the people have little to fear from thugs and robbers, but the ravages of fire are not conquered, and disastrous conflagrations still continue to destroy life and property and terrorize alike the dwellers in the lofty tenement or the palatial mansion. The past year has been marked with so many serious conflagrations, and the danger been brought home to them so forcibly by recent disasters in this line, that the people now dread no evil so much as fire. Something must be done to stop this loss of life, and lessen the destruction of property. We cannot expect from the Fire Department any more than they have been doing. With the finest and best apparatus that money can buy, directed and handled by strong, well-drilled men, whose heroic deeds the soldier on the battlefield could not surpass, the danger to our citizens is not overcome. We must look elsewhere for a remedy.

The firemen in their line of duty have done all that human effort can accomplish. We must strike at the cause of the evil. Take such action in the laws concerning the construction of buildings as will check its progress. Heretofore the effort has been to secure a building against falling down rather than to guard against its burning down.

The latter is at present the problem of the hour. That the building should be made as near fireproof as possible is almost universally conceded, and during the past years the Department of Buildings has been growing more and more exacting on this point. The use of fireproof Plaster Boards or Metal Lath on walls and ceilings, in place of the very combustible wooden lath and plaster, is one method of fire prevention enforced to a considerable extent in the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, but not sufficiently provided for in the Boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens. Their virtue as fire retardents is beyond question, and the necessity and benefit of having fireproof walls and ceilings in all buildings is becoming daily more and more apparent.

A small blaze fed by dry lath, and unprotected wooden beams, will only take a few minutes to develop into a fire that will sweep through the house, destroying life and property, and baffle the best efforts of the firemen to subdue. Particularly in the cellars of frame and tenement houses, with the rough, dry beams unprotected, the slightest flame is a source of serious danger. The history of recent fires and the terrible rapidity with which the flames from a small beginning soon enveloped the entire building, but too strongly emphasizes the need of fireproof walls and ceilings. What we want is something that will hold the flames in check, or confine them to one room or portion of a building until the arrival of the Fire Department, or at least until the people can escape. The only practical substances so far offered for this purpose are fireproof Plaster Boards and Metal Lath.

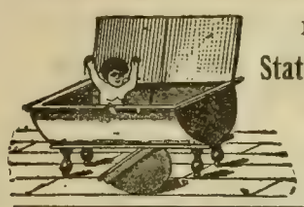
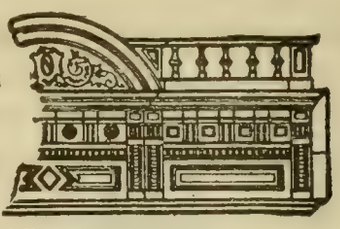
Neither will burn, and will hold the fire back at least ten minutes under the strongest blaze of any house fire. For instance, the Plaster Board known as the "Duffy" Fireproof Plaster Board, backed by soft dry pine wood and tested under Edward Atkinson, of Boston, an eminent authority on fire retardents, protected the wood under a direct furnace blaze of 2,400 degrees Fahrenheit for 8 minutes.



Bare wood under the same test burst into a blaze in 5 seconds.

Of course, in a house fire, the blaze would not be so direct, nor the heat so steady and intense. Metal Lath is also very serviceable for this purpose. If the ceilings, especially the bare beams, in the cellars, were covered with this fireproof Plaster Board or Metal Lath, and the studding between halls, room, and sleeping apartments, likewise protected, the danger will be minimized, the lives of hundreds of people saved, and the loss of thousands of dollars' worth of property averted.



Non-drinkers Demanded by Fellow-workmen.—The daring men who daily swarm over the new sky-scrapers that are going up all over town, are not without their measures of precaution. The iron-workers themselves, as a class, are men who will indulge in a social glass whenever they feel like it, but they take good care never to go on a job when under the influence of liquor. However, no matter what they do themselves in their hours off, they will not permit the employment of any one in the capacity of scaffold-builder or derrick-man who is known to take a drink either off or on duty. The iron-workers themselves insist upon this, and they simply do it as a precaution of safety to themselves. If any one of them sees or hears of a derrick or scaffold-man taking a drink, it is his duty to report at once, and the man is watched. When proof is found the offender is instantly discharged. The contractor might protest against such extreme action, but he has the alternative of either abiding by the rule or procuring a new gang of ironworkers.—Philadelphia Record.

Pipes that Won't Freeze.—The frozen water-pipe is a problem that confronts almost everybody where large systems of water-piping are in use. A new German invention designed to prevent this provides an opportunity for its expansion by cold. Into the iron pipe as far as it is above ground there is inserted a second narrower pipe, of thin sheet tin or lead, which is filled with an elastic substance, such as rubber, for instance. This insertion remains unaffected by ordinary pressure, but if extreme cold should cause the water to freeze the elastic insertion is compressed by so much as the volume of water is increased by freezing. In thawing the insertion expands again to its original circumference. The tin or lead around the insertion is for the purpose of preventing the water from assuming an unpleasant taste or odor. Water-pipes provided with insertion withstood a cold test of 40 degrees C., while others that were not provided with it burst every time.—Invention.

LUMBER.

Appended quotations are based almost wholly upon prices obtained for goods from first hands. Yard rates necessarily range much higher owing to the expenses attending sorting out and grading cargo and even car lots, besides which must be added the cost of handling and carrying until consumers are ready to invest. Terms of sale also prove important factors, and altogether it is impossible to give a line of retail quotations thoroughly reliable in character.

Vol. LXIII. JUNE 24, 1899. No. 1,632.

AS time goes on the Stock Market develops more and more a liquidating character. Only a few months ago there could not be seen on the speculative horizon a cloud as big as a man's hand; but the clouds have since gathered, and week by week new circumstances of ominous bearing came to sight. At first it was the backwardness of farming operations that threatened a poorer crop, then came gold exports; these have been followed and sometimes accompanied by a number of other events that help to prove that the prices to which many securities were forced were quite unjustified, and, that, of course, a re-adjustment of quotations had to be brought about. This re-adjustment has not been completed yet. Those who are carrying stocks at the lately inflated prices find encouragement in the excellence of the general business situation, and in the cheapness of money; none the less they will have to surrender eventually to those who have the more logical speculative position. There is a lively expectation that the market will receive some benefit from the interest and dividend disbursements which will be made next week. This is quite reasonable. A very large amount of money will come into investor's hands on July 1st, but in the main it will be absorbed by gilt-edged investment, for which preparations are being made by the issue of large amounts of municipal bonds, and the offering of other securities in the market. It is not probable that much of this money will go into speculation, so that speculative issues will be more sympathetically benefited by the July disbursements than actually. The liveliness imparted to Wall street business, however, by the movements of this money is not unlikely to influence a re-action from the present decidedly droopy condition of things, after which the process of bringing prices down to more accord with values will be renewed, and the broker must contemplate the prospect of a dull summer. As a rule he already does so, knowing that the prosperous business he has been doing for a couple of years could not continue forever. The broker, though, is in a better condition to take the situation philosophically than the customer who got in at the top. As regards the business situation generally that is reported on all sides to be satisfactory. Railroads continue to increase earnings in a remarkable way, and the bulletins from staple centres all speak well of the business doing. In iron and steel this is phenomenal, and does not appear to be one of those speculative rushes which end in what is called a boom. It is due to a remarkable and, as yet unestimated growth in the uses of the two metals that has not yet found its fullest expression in the outputs of the manufacturing plants.

IN Europe, the matters that create most anxiety are the position of the French government, and Britain's dispute with the Transvaal. Regarding the political situation in France, the inability to secure a ministry coming at the time when the re-trial of Dreyfus was to take place, was, of course, very unfortunate. It either meant that the leading republican politicians were not in sympathy with President Loubet, or they were waiting to see how the public would take the prisoner's return and his probable exculpation. Politicians do these kind of things; but in the event of the situation becoming threatening, the necessities of their political positions force them into, at least, temporary union. These seem to have occasioned the formation of the Waldeck-Rosseau ministry and the fairer way the sober position of the French nation regards the Dreyfus affair may give it stability, and also the members, an opportunity to claim credit for patriotism, or for true Gallicism, as it might be termed on this side of the Atlantic. The Transvaal affair has a very ugly look, but it is, too, capable of peaceable solution. If Britain is aware that in the Boers they have an entirely capable foe, the leaders of the latter must know that war now must in the end mean, if not the entire extinguishment of their republic, at least the separation of the gold regions from their territory. The money market shows fresh signs of coming scarcity if not of stringency, in the raising of the discount rate of the Imperial Bank of Germany and in the necessity the Bank of England will be under because of outside pressure to increase its reserve. A continuation of the prosperity of over-sea business is shown by a flattering report just presented to the stockholders of the Suez Canal and the increase of the dividend on their shares to 20%, as well as the laying aside of a substantial amount to improve buildings and plant. Several practical steps have been taken to check the speculation in industrial shares at Berlin, one of these being the publication of official statements to show that conditions did not justify quotations in particular cases. It may be interesting to a good many of our readers to learn that the shares of companies manufacturing Portland cement have been prominent, in the movement, and have made quite large advances this year. This not only explains the increased cost of German Portland cement on this side, but it suggests strongly, as does also the increased consumption of iron, the existence of a big structural movement in the Empire. In Vienna the prospect has brightened under promise of an agreement being ultimately arranged between Austria and Hungary and bettering of the crop conditions in both countries through improved weather, with grain prices good as a result of the bad reports from Russia. In European, as well as in our own markets, the prices of Mexican railroad securities have risen. This fact is attributed to the following circumstances: The credit of the Mexican Republic is good, it having for years promptly met all its engagements in spite of the decline in silver and foreign capital has, therefore, not hesitated to seek investment there; business has benefited by the late reaction in prices of silver this year; and a satisfactory arrangement has been in existence among the railroads for the maintenance of rates. The Paris Chamber of Commerce has recommended the re-establishment of the temporary admission in bond of silk, linen and woollen tissues to be embroidered for re-export.

TENEMENT HOUSE REFORM.

IT is but bare justice to point out that a number of the suggestions of the Tenement House Committee of the Charity Organization Society for the improvement of tenement house constructions, which were given in our last issue, do not originate with that Committee, but are already embodied in the Building Law. The Committee, apparently, think they will be safer in the Tenement House Law, and, therefore, propose that they shall be enacted into that also. Briefly, the suggestions of the Committee now in the Building Law, are those relating to the fireproofing of interior shafts and openings, the carrying of stud partitions through the flooring and the filling in of the studding, concreting of cellars and the filling in of walls back of ranges with brick. It is proposed to continue these in the new building code, and in some cases to add requirements which will make them more effective. Outside of the two first suggestions in the Committee's list of sixteen and those already mentioned, none need be discussed now. Whether the Legislature will compel owners of tenement houses to furnish tub or shower baths; to construct roof playgrounds; or to take out dead panels from hall doors and substitute glass ones is a matter that need not be discussed until it is asked to do so. It is extremely doubtful whether, if all these things were provided, they would prove as beneficial as their friends think they would. It is one thing to provide conveniences for tenement house dwellers and quite another to get them to make a proper use of them.

In addition to so many of the requirements of the Committee being already met by provisions of the law, one is anticipated by the rules of the Department of Buildings that each living room shall contain 600 cubic feet of space. By an error of the printers of the law the space of living rooms was made to read 400 cubic feet, instead of 600, but the Department has very properly held to the original intention. Another of the Committee's requirements is likely to be anticipated by the new building code which will most probably limit the height of tenement houses to six stories, but going a step further to meet the requirements of a rapidly growing population for housing on the one hand and the protection of the building from fire, will allow seven stories whenever the two first are built fireproof. The Committee's second suggested is contained in the following words: "In all tenement houses hereafter erected, and in all buildings not now used as tenements, but hereafter used as tenements, or hereafter altered to be used as tenements, no window from any room, except water-closet and bathroom apartments, shall open on any court or shaft less than 8 feet wide in any part." This is simply one of the two requirements expressly intended to prevent tenement house building on the ordinary lot. What its actual physical results would be in building it is not necessary to work out; it is enough to say that it would be positively prohibitory of building on a 25-foot lot. This and the following may be taken as the Committee's expedients for carrying out their chief aim, the suppression of the four-family, 25-foot tenement: "Every tenement house hereafter erected on a lot less than 40 feet wide, and every building hereafter altered to be used as a tenement house, and situated on a lot less than 40 feet wide, shall have all rooms, halls and stairs open directly on the street or yard; and such street and yard shall in all parts extend across the full width of the lot, but exterior balconies and stairs at the side of the lot not over six feet in width shall not be considered as diminishing the full width of the yard for the purposes of this act. The above provision shall not apply to corner buildings."

Notwithstanding the statements to the contrary made in the interest of theoretical tenement-house reform, the conditions surrounding the housing of our industrial population, will not permit these two last mentioned suggestions to be adopted into the law without serious consequences to the tenement population and to business. It has been proved that large tenements can be made to pay, but the number of such tenements is small compared with the demand for cheap housing, and until they increase in numbers adequate to take care at least of the growth of the working population, any legislation to compel their construction would work great mischief. There is no warrant either in the values of land, the prices of materials, or obtainable rents, that its enactment would be immediately followed by the erection of a sufficient number of large tenements to meet the natural growth of cheap housing demands; and, if it was not, a scarcity would arise to be inevitably followed by an increase in rents. Moreover, the 25-foot house is not necessarily the choice of the builder. It has been forced upon him by the system of subdividing urban land, in which 25x100 is taken as the unit, as well as by the wants of his patrons. Arbitrary changes in the law like those indicated by the Committee's suggestions, would not only prejudice the builder of small means, who in the main supplies the wants of the working classes, but, also, the owner of every 25-foot lot in a tenement section that had not already been converted to the purpose for which it was most fitted.

FURTHER consideration of the boundary that ought to be laid down for the fire limits in the building code of the City of New York, now in course of formulation, has resulted in the adoption of a new tentative line for the Bronx. The Manhattan limits remain amended as last stated, by including the territory north of 190th street, between a line 100 feet west of Broadway and the Harlem River. In the Bronx the fire limits have been largely extended under the advice of Chief Croker of the Fire Department and Chief Engineer Louis Risse of the Topographical Bureau, who have agreed in recommending the following: "Beginning at a point on the eastern bulkhead line of the Harlem River and the northern line of the approach to the Central Bridge; thence southeasterly along said approach to the property of the New York Central & Hudson River Railroad Company; thence southerly along the N. Y. C. & H. R. R. R. Company's property to the main line of the New York & Harlem Railroad Company; thence easterly along said main line of the N. Y. & H. R. R. to a point 100 feet westerly of Morris avenue; thence easterly and parallel to Morris avenue to a point 100 feet northerly of the northern line of Park avenue, thence northeasterly and parallel to Park avenue and 100 feet therefrom to East 165th street; thence northeasterly and parallel to Webster avenue and 100 feet therefrom to a point distant 100 feet northerly of East 177th street; thence southeasterly and parallel to East 177th street and 100 feet northerly therefrom to a point 100 feet southeasterly of West Farms road (Main street); thence southeasterly and parallel to West Farms road and 100 feet southeasterly therefrom to a point 100 feet easterly of Hoe street; thence crossing Westchester avenue on a line parallel with Hoe street to a point 100 feet southerly of Westchester avenue; thence westerly on a line parallel to Westchester avenue, 100 feet therefrom to a point 100 feet southeasterly of Robbins avenue; thence southwesterly along a line parellel to Robbins avenue and 100 feet therefrom; to a point 100 feet northeasterly of the northern line of East 149th street; thence southeasterly and southwesterly following a line parallel to East 149th street and 100 feet easterly therefrom to the East River; thence southwesterly along the East River, northwesterly along the Bronx Kills, and northerly along the Harlem River to the point of beginning."

THE Tax Department statement, published yesterday, of the assessed values of real and personal estate, is dated prior to the closing of the tax books to inspection and, therefore, referred to the work done in making up the books which were opened on January last and did not show what the figures for assessed valuations of either real or personal property will be when the books are finally delivered to the Municipal Assembly next month. Apparently, last evening's papers overlooked the facts, and, as a consequence, misled their readers. The figures give a net personal property tax valuation for the whole city of only $553,899,864, or only about $6,000,000 more than the total personal tax valuations of the several boroughs when last made up prior to the operation of the charter provisions as to valuations. As announced last January, the real estate tax valuation of Manhattan was $2,062,361,475, from that, as we show in another column, deductions to the amount of $8,100,000, in round figures, have been made, making the net valuation about $2,054,261,475. In Brooklyn, a gross valuation of $614,807,025 is similarly reduced by $2,735,000 to $612,072,025, about. The reductions in other boroughs were not totalled up yesterday, nor were the revised figures of personal tax valuations available.

WASHINGTON HEIGHTS.

No better proof could be found of the natural attractiveness of Washington Heights as a place of residence than the crowds that flock to the plateau for a brief outing these hot summer holidays. Probably 50,000 people ride over the Amsterdam avenue road, from 125th street to Fort George, of a Sunday, the majority, perhaps, coming from the East Side tenement districts, via 3d avenue and 125th street. The exhilarating air and the prospect out over the Palisades and the Hudson act as a tonic on mind and muscle. In the heat of the day no cooler resting-place can be found on Manhattan than Washington Heights, and a public reservation at Fort George would hardly be less of a boon to the city than the contemplated park at Coney Island. A park at Fort George is, indeed, ultimately probable. But a deal of money would be saved to the municipality if the reservation were established promptly, before land values go up as a consequence of betterments in transportation facilities.

The inadequacy of the existing transportation service is an economic anomaly, in view of the natural advantages of the heights as a place of residence. One has but to look down upon the Harlem Flats to obtain some notion of what an elevated road would have done for the plateau. The Washington Heights district has been a chief sufferer from the successive disappointments of the various Rapid Transit Commissions. In the closing days of Mayor Strong's administration it appeared as if work on the tunnel road was certain to begin shortly, but that outlook was dashed by consolidation. Some immediate relief, however, is expected from the improvements making by the Third Avenue Company. The change from cable traction to electricity, which will be undertaken on Amsterdam avenue as soon as the electric equipment of the 3d avenue and 125th street lines is completed, will shorten travel somewhat under the traffic agreement with the Manhattan Railway. Furthermore, in accordance with a division of territory agreed upon with the Metropolitan interests, the Third Avenue Company has applied for a franchise in the Boulevard and Kingsbridge road, to connect with the Union Railway system in Bronx Borough, which application has advanced to the joint committee on railroads of the Municipal Assembly. At the office of the Third Avenue Company it was said that work on the projected extension would undoubtedly be begun in the autumn. Another franchise through the district has been applied for by the Municipal Railroad Company, a new corporation about which little is known, which proposes to run trolley cars from 116th street, along Manhattan avenue, St. Nicholas avenue, Kingsbridge road, and Riverdale avenue, to Yonkers, with branches in 116th, 124th and 145th streets, connecting the main line with 8th avenue. A hearing on the application has been set by the joint committee for June 30, when residents of St. Nicholas avenue, particularly, will enter a strong protest. It would, indeed, be a pity if the residential quiet of this architecturally handsome avenue were to be invaded by the rush and clang of trolley travel. The route proposed by the Third Avenue Company is by all odds the more desirable of the two.

Before consolidation, while the hope of underground transit ran high, a comparatively vigorous building movement was started on the heights. Above 155th street this movement has subsided to a considerable extent. But below 155th street it has been pretty well maintained, although the house market has not turned out to be of the best. Below 155th street the district is, of course, served by the elevated railway, although very inadequately, because of the distance between accessible stations. Imperfect as the service is, however, it has been a chief support of the building activity on the heights, an activity which is particularly evident in the side streets, between the 141st and 153d city parallels.

Some doubt seems to have been felt by builders as to what character the district was to assume. Among buildings recently constructed are several tenements and some cheap flats. The vast majority of the buildings, however, both those recently constructed and those in process of erection, are private houses, while good apartments, including elevator flats, are coming into prominence. Thus, Jacob A. Zimmerman is erecting six 6-story elevator flats, each containing a frontage of over 30 feet, on the west side of the Boulevard, 148th to 149th street. On the northwest corner of 142d street and Hamilton place, one 7-story and two 6-story flats, by Chas. F. Rogers, are nearing completion; Jacob M. Wimpie has a 6-story flat, 60x90, well under way on

St. Nicholas avenue, opposite 147th street; and on the southwest corner of the same avenue and 153d street, Maurice Polk is putting up three extra-wide 6-story flats. P. H. Lynch is erecting a 7-story flat on the northwest corner of 141st street and Hamilton place, which is to be followed by another on the southeast corner. Mr. Lynch has struck out some original ideas in the planning of both flats and dwellings, ideas which have uniformly secured for his buildings a ready market. The flat on 141st street and Hamilton place, for example, will contain on the first floor two suites, one of eight, and the other of nine, rooms and bath. Each suite has a separate entrance from the street, being completely shut off from the rest of the building, and is to all intents and purposes a private house. The entrance to the flats is between these two independent suites. The flats, which are planned to rent for an average of $50 a month, contain four and five rooms each, besides bath, and have every modern convenience, down to fireproof safes in the dining-rooms. The elevator apartments mentioned in the foregoing are, of course, the first of the kind on the heights. Their projection was made possible by the extension into the district of the service of the United Electric Light and Power Co., which is to be effected in time for the fall renting season.

In this connection it is interesting to note that two 5-story flats erected this spring by John P. Leo on the east side of the Boulevard, north of 148th street, the pioneer flats in this section of the avenue, are filling up rapidly with tenants.

Of private houses probably not less than seventy-five are in various stages of construction between 141st and 153d street, the handsomest section of the plateau, while several times that number have been conpleted in the past two years, during which time long stretches particularly of St. Nicholas and Convent avenues, 141st, 142d, 147th and 149th streets, have been built upon with dwellings, interspersed with flats. John S. Heisler has ten 3-story and basement dwellings, 15x48, under way on the north side of 142d street, 275 feet west of the Boulevard; John W. Stevens is building thirteen 4-story dwellings, 16 to 18x53, on the south side of the same street, 100 feet west of Convent avenue; William Wahle is putting up ten 3-story and basement houses, 20x53, on the west side of Convent avenue, from 141st to 142d street; and ten 4-story houses are under construction by Joseph Straus on the north side of 150th street, 100 feet west of Amsterdam avenue. Operations of five and six houses are plentiful.

Six new 4-story American basement houses on the north side of 141st street, 23 feet west of Hamilton place, and eight similar improvements on the south side of 142d street, abutting on the former, require some special mention. These houses are planned to accommodate two families each, with two floors, comprising eight rooms and bath, to the family. The houses are 16x64.9, contain steam heat and hot water supply, renting at $55 per apartment. The owner has put up about 100 two-family houses on the heights since 1893. The first contained only three stories, giving the two lower floors to one family. It was found, however, that the second family desired more space than could be provided on the third floor. The 4-story high-stoop house was then tried, which had the disadvantage, as regards the lower apartment, that sleeping-rooms had to be placed on the parlor floor. Finally, in the houses on 141st and 142d streets, the American basement type was used, which proved to be excellently adapted for 2-family dwellings.

The budget of news from brokers' offices this week has been enlivened by three sales in Broadway, and one in the West Side mercantile district. The new 10-story store, loft and office building on the southeast corner of Walker street, was sold by Birkmire & Moxley, speculative builders, to Charles A. Gould for $550,000 cash. The building, which was the firm's first venture, was constructed, let, and sold in less than a year's time, the plans having been filed in July last. The bearings of this record, both as regards the builders and the condition of real estate in the commercial section of Broadway, are too obvious to require comment. The sale of the Niagara Building, on the northwest corner of Cedar sreet, though surrounded by much mystery, is admitted by several of the parties in interest. The transaction is somewhat complicated, but appears to be to the effect that the property has been bought by members of the new International Banking and Trust Co. It is admitted that plans have been drawn by Bruce Price for a 14-story office building, which is to be erected on the site, and part of which will, no doubt, be occupied by the International Banking and Trust Co., whose present offices are in the Singer Building. Rumor has it that Peter F. Meyer is among those connected with the purchase, and that, so soon as the new structure is completed, the Real Estate Salesroom will be removed to it from the Trinity Building. At Mr. Meyer's office it was denied that he was in any way interested in the purchase. Apart from Mr. Meyers' predilection, however, the probability of a removal of the Salesroom is frequently discussed among auctioneers, the discussion being revived this week by the recorded transfer to Frederick Ayer of a one-third interest in the Trinity Building. True, the premises are let at high rentals, and with practically no vacancies. On the other hand, the leases, when last renewed, were made for one-year terms only, and two years ago it was found necessary to scale down rents, 10 per cent., according to some, throughout the building. Mr. Ayer now owns a one-half share in the property. The other half is divided among several interests, a circumstance which will have to be considered in weighing the probability of improvement. Among those known to be interested in the purchase of the Niagara Building are Potter & Bro., Wm. Chesebrough, Stewart Browne and the George A. Fuller Construction Co. The third transaction in Broadway concerned the 6-story building adjoining the southeast corner of Fulton street. Another interesting item of news is that which tells of the sale of a business property on the northwest corner of Laight and Varick streets. This is one of several recent indications, not too plentiful, to be sure, of an improved condition of realty in the West Side mercantile district. Apart from the foregoing trasactions, which contain enough popular interest to redeem even a midwinter week from the charge of commonplaceness, the brokerage branch of the real estate business has been seasonably active. The total number of transactions reported below is 48, with considerations given in 10, and amounting to $731,000. Corresponding figures for last week were, 47, 6 and $426,000, respectively, and for the same week last year, 44, 17, and $910,750, respectively.

The list of auction offerings was shorter than at any time since last December, and consisted for the most part of flats and tenements put up by virtue of decrees in foreclosure suits. Of the sixteen foreclosure offerings, nine were bought by plaintiffs, and two were withdrawn; the sale of one was adjourned. The two 5-story brownstone buildings, on plot 28.8x150, at No. 23 Park place, running through to No. 20 Murray street, was disposed of by Richard V. Harnett at voluntary sale for $170,000. The 4-story dwelling, on lot 21.10x100, at No. 1041 5th avenue, near 85th street, was sold by Strong & Ireland for $57,000. Some sixty improved and unimproved parcels in Bronx Borough and Mount Vernon, put up by James L. Wells under order from trustees and executors, met with an indifferent reception, thirty parcels being withdrawn, and the rest going at low prices. However, in a Supreme Court partition sale, conducted by the same auctioneer, seven plots and a dwelling in Boston road and Franklin avenue, south of 166th street, were disposed of at prices which show that the demand for live Bronx real estate has by no means surfeited. The plot, 50x144, on the west side of Boston road, 192 feet south of 166th street, was bought at $12,200 by an owner of adjoining property, than whom presumably no one knows its value better.

Brooklyn.

The character of the week's transactions continues to show the approach of the summer season, with little activity and no big deals to mark the week as important. Brokers who deal exclusively in city properties report an inactive market, with few buyers, at even the low figures at which such holdings are now being offered. The boom in suburban dwellings has reduced the number of applicants for homes in the older sections of the city. This tendency is manifest most strongly at this season of the year when suburban life offers such great attractions. Those who do a renting business in the summer cottages are more than satisfied with the present conditions. This class of brokers report a good season in all grades of cottages, though even with them there has been a natural falling-off during the past week. The expected improvement in the Long Island Railroad service has materially assisted the dealer in summer properties. With increased transit facilities all Long Island property within daily ride of the business centers should be benefited.

The following are the comparative tables for the Brooklyn Conveyances, Mortgages and Projected Buildings for the corresponding weeks of 1899 and 1898 given:

At the auction sale of the O. B. Jenning's tract at Bay Ridge, on Saturday last, the prices realized for even the most attractive lots were low. In support of this opinion may be pointed out the fact that most of the property was bought by one or two big operators who took advantage of the usual option to secure a quarter to a half of a block at a time. A plot which included ten lots on the south side of Bay Ridge avenue, twelve lots in the rear on 70th street, and the ten lots on the west side of 12th avenue, running from Bay Ridge avenue to 70th street, went for $250 per lot. Two lots at the southeast corner of 70th street and 11th avenue brought $445 each, which was the top figure paid for any regular sized lot. Fancy prices were paid for the lots on the west side of 11th avenue, $495 each being given for the northwest corner of 72d street and 11th avenue, and the inside lot next adjoining on 72d street. These high figures are explained by the fact that these lots border on the land of the Bay Ridge Park Improvement Company and may be needed by that company to straighten its lines along 11th avenue.

The strenuous opposition to the extension of the fire limits shown by the residents of Flatbush and other sections affected, has resulted in a practical revision of the proposed limits, so as to exclude nearly all property in the 29th and 26th, and part of the 27th Wards. At a meeting of the local members of the Building Code Commission, held on Thursday, it was decided that the above amendment to the proposed limits be recommended to the Commission on New Building Code, for consideration at its next session. It is more than probable that the latter body will adopt this amendment. The fact that the fire limits will be extended through the business center of Flatbush, along Flatbush avenue to Avenue E, and including 100 feet on each side of the aveune, will afford the requisite protection to this section of the borough, while leaving the residence sections open to the present style of frame dwellings. This state of affairs will be perfectly satisfactory to Flatbush dwellers, who were the chief opponents of the proposed change.

July 10th has been set as the date for a public hearing on the Coney Island Park project. The meeting will be held at 2 o'clock in the Chamber of the Board of Aldermen. At this hearing Chief Engineer Risse, of the Topographical Survey, will submit a report on the plan to limit the park to the sea beach, and the 400 feet of upland above high tide.

In order to enable the Chief Engineer to submit his recommendations, the Board of Public Improvements has postponed the commencement of proceedings to open Narrows avenue, between 71st street and 73d street, and betwen 78th street and 79th street, 21st avenue and 15th avenue.

A movement is on foot to induce the Manhattan Beach Railroad Company and the Brighton Beach road to improve the crossings at Utica avenue and Avenue U, between East 17th and East 18th streets, and East 15th and East 16th streets. A public hearing will be given by the Board of Public Improvements on July 6th in the interest of this movement.

The Engineers of the Topographical Department are making a survey to ascertain the difference in the levels of the East River and Flushing Bay. If feasible, a canal connecting Newtown Creek and Flushing Bay may be constructed. Such a course would be of immense benefit from a commercial point of view.

Bridge Commissioner Shea has recently had a survey made for the proposed bridge over Garrettsen's Creek, at Avenue U. The construction of such a bridge will afford the only thoroughfare between Bensonhurst and Bergen Beach. As soon as the bridge is completed the Brooklyn Heights Railroad Company expect to operate a line of cars along this avenue connecting these points.

Deputy Commissioner Walton of Public Buildings, Lighting and Supplies is making an estimate of the probable cost of a new fireproof building to take the place of the present women's prison structure, which is in a hopelessly dilapidated condition.

The depreciation of "Heights" property is illustrated by the low figures at which old mansions are placed on the market and how long it takes to find a buyer at even the reduced figures. One of these, or a corner lot, 33x150, is offered at less than a third of the original cost 30 years ago.

Pacific st, No. 891, north side, west of Underhill avenue, 25x55 x100, 4-sty double brick flat; seller, Thomas R. Farrell; buyer, Gustavus J. Winkler; consideration, $9,500; brokers, Redmond Brothers.

84th st, south side, 220 feet west of 13th av, 3-sty cottage, plot 60x100; seller, Walter L. Johnson; buyer, James B. Freeman; consideration, $7,750.

84th st, near 12th av, 3-sty cottage; seller, Walter L. Johnson; consideration, $10,500; brokers, Burrell Brothers.

Ocean Parkway, west side, north of Avenue F, fronting 60 feet on Ocean Parkway and running 250 feet deep to East 5th st, vacant; sellers, E. C. M. Fitzgerald; buyer, Jesse C. Schenck; consideration, $1,500. This plot is located just north of the tract recently sold by the Butterick Publishing Company.

East 12th st, west side, 500 feet south of Slocum pl, 3-sty frame dwelling; seller, Charles C. Manger; buyer, Augustus F. Wortman; consideration, $4,000.

Decatur st, No. 584, south side, 160 feet east of Howard av, 19.8x100, 2-sty and basement 2-family brownstone dwelling; sellers, Mary J. Caulfield and Kate A. Neville; buyer, George H. Miller; consideration, $6,000.

71st st, between 12th and 13th avs, 3-sty Queen Anne cottage, plot 40x100; seller, The New York and Long Island Realty Company; buyer, Frank McDavitt; consideration, $5,000.

REAL ESTATE NOTES.

Pease & Elliman have moved into offices at No. 542 5th av, 3d floor, which they will occupy until the alterations to their old offices are completed.

Hall of Records' Commission of Estimate have adjourned to October 5th next, at 2 p. m. Hearings on the West 52d and 54th streets park will be resumed July 6th next, at 2 p. m.

A quarterly dividend of 2½% has been declared on the stock of the Title Guarantee and Trust Co. payable July 1. The official announcement will be found in our business pages. This is an increase of ½% for the quarter, and makes the annual rate 10%, as compared with 8% previously, a telling evidence of the success of the Company.

The sale of the North River Tunnel property has been followed by the incorporation of the Manhattan and Jersey City Railway Company, whose object is to complete the tunnel. According to the spokesman of the company, Ernest C. Moore, Engineer, No. 130 Pearl street, the Manhattan terminal is to be "within 1,000 feet of Cortlandt street," and the Jersey City terminal, "not far from Montgomery street."

It is reported from Albany that Attorney-General Davis, who has been asked to decide the question as to how soldiers in the Philippines owning property in this State can execute deeds and powers of attorney in relation to property in this State to entitle the papers to record here, has given a ruling to the effect that a person there may lawfully execute such deed or power of attorney before a subscribing witness about to leave the islands.

The Council on Tuesday approved the issue of $1,849,107.32 bonds for parks, distributed as follows: For lands at East 192d st, Kingsbridge road and Concourse, $114,005.58; lands for driveway between 155th st and Highbridge Park, $363,282.62; lands for 23d Ward Park, $1,371,819.12. They also approved the issue of $300,000 bonds for Fire Department sites and buildings, particulars of which were given on page 823 of our issue of May 6th last.

Justice Beach, of the Supreme Court, has made an order that William G. Choate, Joel B. Erhardt and William G. Davies, Commissioners for the widening of Elm street, have $15,000 each, in addition to the allowances by statute for their work. At the same time the Judge disallowed items amounting to $82,318, for which, he says, the city cannot be charged. One of these items is for $29,600 for legal services by Albert B. Boardman, appointed counsel to the Commissioners four years ago. The Judge holds that the work should have been done by the Corporation Counsel.

The question of the apportionment among the boroughs of the budgetary deficit of 1898 promises to develop a heated discussion when it comes up for action before the Municipal Assembly. The deficit amounts to some $7,175,000. If apportioned in accordance with the Comptroller's reading of the charter, upwards of $5,980,000 of this sum will fall upon Manhattan and Bronx, in which case the tax rate, as far as those boroughs are concerned, will probably exceed 2.50. President Feitner, of the Tax Board, however, maintains that the apportionment should be made according to the actual expenditures for the several boroughs, in which event the share falling to Manhattan and Bronx would be, he thinks, small enough to prevent the tax rate from exceeding, or perhaps even reaching, 2.50. His contention is that the deficit has been occasioned chiefly by increased administrative expenditures in the annexed districts, as, for example, scaling up the wages of employes of the Board of Education and the Fire and Police Departments, to the rate of remuneration which obtained in the old city of New York. The provision of the charter, contained in section 901, that bears on the question, apparently furnishes good ground for President Feitner's views. It reads in substance: The Municipal Assembly shall have full power to equalize and adjust different rates of taxation in the several boroughs to the end that, taking the years 1898 and 1899 together, each borough shall pay its proper proportion of the general expenditures of the city for both years. Meantime, until the question apportioning the deficit has been settled, and the totals of the revised real and personal assessments ascertained, it is futile to speculate further on the tax rate. It is known, however, that the deductions from the preliminary realty assessments in Manhattan and Brooklyn are $8,100,000 and $2,735,000, respectively.

PROPOSED EXTENSION OF SULLIVAN STREET.

At a meeting of the Board of Public Improvements on Wednesday a resolution was adopted to extend Sullivan street through from 3d to Washington square South. The managers of the Home for Fallen and Friendless Girls, at Nos. 49 and 50 Washington square South, protested against this extension, as it takes a portion of their property. Mrs. Mary G. Spencer, of No. 43 Washington square, also filed a protest through her attorney. Much of the opposition developed seemed to be on account of the low estimate placed on the value of the property condemned.

The property it is proposed to take is made up of the following: No. 95 West 3d street, 5-story brick tenement on lot 25x100; No. 97 West 3d street, 25x100, vacant; Nos. 48 and 49 West 4th street (Washington square), old dwellings, on lots 25x109 each, part of the Wetmore Home for Friendless Girls. The tax values and the values put upon these parcels by J. O. B. Webster, Engineer of the Board, who was guided in his calculations by prices obtained for contiguous properties at the Eno sale in April are: No. 93 West 3d street, tax value, $15,000; estimated value $21,000. No. 95 West 3d street, tax value, $6,000; estimated value, $10,000. Nos. 48 and 49 West 4th street, each, tax value, $11,000; estimated value, $23,000. The total tax value of all four parcels is $41,000, and the estimated actual value $77,000. Mr. Webster estimates that the cost of the physical work will be $100,000. Application for this improvement was made to the old Board of Street Opening and Improvement in 1890, by August C. Hassey and other property-owners, but was not pressed, and action was not taken upon it until now. The idea animating the present movement is that this opening will improve the moral condition of the tenement section south of the proposed improvement.

The Building Trades

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

The event of the week was the increase of $1 in the prices for spruce timber, the quotation now being narrow $15.50@$16.50 and wide, $17.50@18.50 p. M. This seems to be a very practical answer to the question whether lumber prices can exceed the maxima of 1892, which has been discussed lately in the trade journals. There was a considerable falling off in the arrivals of North River brick the amount being 50 barges to compare with 74 barges last week, and 79 barges the week before. Prices show a lowering tendency as the season advances, they being now stated at $5.50@$6.00, though the demand remains quite good all things considered. There were large receipts of lath, 10,000,000, and prices dropped 5c. to $2.20@$2.30. There were no changes in either lime, cements, lead, paint, nails or oil from the conditions surrounding those commodities, according to our last reports. Naval stores are firm on slight advances. Spirits are 39½c. for Southerns, and 40c. for machine-made barrels. Yesterday it was announced that window glass had been advanced 5c. for single and 10c. for double thickness.

OF INTEREST TO THE BUILDING TRADES.

John J. Roberts, contract plasterer, is summering at Shelter Island.

Fitzpatrick & Daly, masons and builders, of No. 343 West Broadway, dissolved partnership on June 12th last.

Robt. G. Kenny, contractor and builder, has removed his office to No. 1548 Broadway, between 45th and 46th sts. Mr. Kenny has several jobs underway.

The product of the American Enameled Brick and Tile Co., of No. 1 Madison av, will be extensively used in the Real Estate Trust Co.'s new office building at Philadelphia.

Talk of a new municipal building capable of housing all the municipal departments has been revived in the Board of Aldermen, where, on Tuesday last, the matter was referred to the Joint Committees (of Aldermen and Council) on Building, Lighting and Supplies.

The plans and specifications which are to serve as a guide for the architects who will compete for the plans of the new Custom House, on the Bowling Green site, have been forwarded to the various firms and individuals who may compete, by James Knox Taylor, the supervising architect. The contestants have till Sept. 15 to submit their plans.

E. H. Kendall, architect, has made an excellent selection of colors and material for the new office building of the American Express Co., now being erected at Railroad av and 138th st. The terra cotta is strikingly handsome, and harmonizes well with the brick used. We learn that the terra cotta and brick are being furnished by Meeker, Carter & Booraem, of No. 1 Madison avenue.

The New York and Long Island Terminal Company has been incorporated by Long Island Railroad interests, with a capital of $7,500,000 to build and operate a tunnel under the East River. The work will extend from Flatbush and Atlantic avenues to a point west of Broadway, and south of Fulton street, Manhattan.

Foreman Shanley, who has charge of the work of taking down the 42d street reservoir, is quoted as saying that it will take a long time to finish the work, perhaps the full fourteen months allowed. This is because of the wonderfully fine masonry of the walls, every portion of them will have to be dynamited, and it is a pity to destroy such perfect work, the like of which, he declares, is done nowhere to-day. It speaks well for the honesty of the building men of that day.

The Manhattan Cornice and Skylight Works of No. 435 East Houston street, Alexander & Weiss, proprietors, number among their regular patrons very many of the active and successful builders who make the lower East Side the field of their operations. They executed satisfactorily contracts for Harry Fischel, on Grand, Clinton, Suffolk, Broome, Rivington and East 3d streets; for H. Fine, on Broome and East 4th streets; Ravitch Bros., on Rutgers place; Kidansky & Levy, on Madison, Catharine and Cherry streets; Smith & Goldberg, on Division and Orchard streets; Gordon, Levy & Co., on Elizabeth street; Margowitz & Jacobs, on Clinton, Monroe and East 5th streets; Lewis Frank, on Madison street; George Dellon, Madison and Jackson streets; Peter Herter, on East 105th and 106th streets, and many others. They are furnishing the cornices and louvres for the Aguirre estate, sugar house, at Porto Rico. All contracts are executed under the personal supervision of Messrs. Alexander and Weiss.

Samuel W. Adams and George P. Kinne, the two straw bondsmen on the lien of Traitel Brothers & Co., against Emil C. Greene, which matter, upon application of Phillips & Avery, attorneys for the former, was sent to the District Attorney by Judge Beekman, on Wednesday last, pleaded guilty in the Court of General Sessions before Judge McMahon to the indictment for perjury found against them by the Grand Jury. Sentence was suspended in the case of Samuel W. Adams, and George P. Kinne received a thirty days' sentence. Judge McMahon laid particular strees upon the age of the two prisoners, as influencing his action, Adams being some 70 years old, and Kinne being pretty well along in years. An example of the results following the straw bond was experienced by the firm of attorneys, who have with much public spirit followed up the Adams and Kinne case, this week. Judge Beach granted a motion to punish one Josephine Pollatschek for contempt of Court in going on a bond to discharge a mechanic's lien; the lien was foreclosed, and resulted in a judgment, and none of the sureties were any good.

The frequency with which signs reading "Electrical Machinery Inspected by the Maintenance Company, No. 220 Broadway," are seen in elevators of office and mercantile buildings, apartment houses, etc., where electrical machinery is used, can be readily understood when the advantages of a contract with the Maintenance Co. are known. Their yearly contracts for maintenance are guaranteed by the deposit of a trust fund with the Colonial Trust Co. Some advantages of such contracts are: (1) Limit of owners' liability to a fixed sum per annum; (2) guarantee of expert supervision at regular intervals; (3) educated employees in charge of electrical machinery, and the assurance of the quickest possible system of repairs and reducing to a minimum loss from non-operation; (4) more essential than fire or accident insurance; (5) more valuable than the guarantee of manufacturer of machine which requires proof of original defects in manufacture, (6) avoidance of experiment in irresponsible repair shops; (7) provision against serious accidents to machines that have run a long time without repair. The Goelet estate, American Cotton Seed Oil Co. and Weil & Mayer are a few of the many large owners who have contracts with the Maintenance Co, yhich protect against loss by accident to electrical machinery.

CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title, and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each Convenance, thus 2 : 482, denotes that the property is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—Subscribers will find Conveyances in this list with the wrong block No. attached. The block No. we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

PROJECTED BUILDINGS.

Have you taken space in the new Illustrated Building Laws? Standard publication for Architects, Engineers, Builders, Contractors, Material Dealers, Real Estate Owners. An office tool, in constant and permanent use. A card in it will enable you to talk every day to your customers and to possible customers. Incomparably superior to circulars. The most efficient form of advertising. All the big, wide-awake firms are securing space. The biggest thing ever issued. Do you want to get in? Sent a postal card for particulars. An unusual opportunity.

The first name is that of the owner; ar't stands for architect; m'n for mason; c'r for carpenter, and b'r for builder.

When character of roof is not mentioned, it is to be understood that the roof is to be of tin.

Questions and Answers.

CONTRACT FOR BUILDING.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A gives a contract to B for certain building work, being the entire complete structure, B, a contractor, agreeing to take as payment stock of a company (which has never paid any dividends) if allowed to furnish plans for the structure himself. This A agreed to and made a contract which called for the work to be completed Oct. 15, 1899. Contract was made in January, 1899, and it was verbally stated by B that material would be delivered by May 15, 1899. Although over five months have passed B has not yet (June 13, 1899) delivered a complete set of plans to A for his final approval, and no material has been delivered. In the meantime the shares of stock have greatly depreciated in value. (1) Can A break contract now, or must he wait till Oct. 15, 1899? (2) Can B sublet this work to C, and doing so, could C recover (on a lien) cost of material and work delivered, in money, or would he have to accept the shares of stock at value at time contract was entered into by A and B as payment for his work? This is an actual case, and I have been asked to write you so that A, B and C can see the answer in a reputable paper.

Answer.—(1) If B does not commence work in time to finish the work by October 1st, A can call the contract off after giving due notice. (2) C could not recover from A except according to the contract A made with B. C could ignore the contract of A with B, if he had no knowledge of it, and enforce the payment for his work and material in money from B.—Law Edieor.

BUILDING PARTLY DESTROYED BY FIRE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A has a lease of store and basement occupied as a bakery. B is the owner. The building is partly destroyed by fire. B, the owner, claims that the fire cancels the lease. A claims that it does not.

Answer.—The partial destruction of the building does not cancel the lease. By the laws of 1860, chap. 345, the lessee of a building, which, without his fault, is so destroyed or injured as to be untenable and unfit for occupancy, shall not be liable to pay rent thereafter, unless otherwise expressly provided by written agreement, etc., and he may thereupon surrender possession. It has been decided, by the courts, that under this act, the tenant is not absolved from paying rent, unless he surrenders possession of the premises; and he will be held liable for the whole rent if he retain possession of any part.—Law Editor.

PUMP AND TANK.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I bought a flat some years ago and made an agreement with the seller to supply my flat with water by pumping same to a tank, on the roof, resting on the centre of the party wall, the pump being in the house of the seller adjoining. The consideration was a certain sum to be paid monthly by me for this supply of water. This agreement is embodied in my deed, is on record, and is binding to the heirs, assigns, etc. This agreement has been in force all along and kept by both parties, and was satisfactory all around, the adjoining house being sold, and the water supplied by the new owner for years. Now my new neighbor is trying to do away with this agreement, by making a complaint to the Board of Health that the pumping is annoying him and his tenants, and the Board of Health orders me to set pump for the water on my own premises. We have, and always did have, a good suply of water. The tank is in good order and is clean. The fault is this: The pump is out of order, needs repair, and for this reason is working hard, and makes a noise. Can the Board of Health compel me, under these conditions, to make such alterations, to give my neighbor a chance to overcome this covenant? Or have I to appeal to the courts for relief?

Answer.—I do not think the Board of Health has such power, but if proceedings are taken by the Board you will be obliged to appeal to the courts for relief.—Law Editor.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headlines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's Office to be recorded. Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

*Editor Record and Guide:

The lien filed by John Larson against me on property on Elm pl, is unjust. After I gave the contract to Larson, he requested an order on the owner for money to purchase lumber, before commencing, claiming he could not get it without the cash. I then let the contract to another party, and when they brought the lumber on the premises, he filed the lien without doing any work whatever. M. J. Walsh.

FRINK'S SPECIAL WINDOW REFLECTOR

is placed in top of window near the front glass, reflecting a strong light inward and downward, and cutting off the direct light from the eye of the observer; the effect is truly astonishing. Adopted by the leading stores everywhere. Book of light and estimate free. Tel. 860 Franklin.

"SALASEE" PLASTERING FIBER.

Charles R. Weeks & Brother, of No. 542 West 14th street, have made arrangements to control and place on the market the "Salasee Plastering Fiber," a substitute for hair. This material, which is highly recommended by architects, has been used in the Hotel Endicott, World Building, Juvenile Asylum and other prominent buildings in New York, as well as in the Tampa Bay Hotel and other large structures in various parts of the country with satisfactory results. Owing to the death of the gentleman who had its introduction in hand, together with that of the inventor of the process, its manufacture has been brought practically to a standstill. Soon it will be available as the factory is being remodeled and put in thorough working order. In the meantime samples can be obtained on application to the Messrs. Weeks.

New York City's Parks.—The old settlers of Manhattan would open their eyes in astonishment if they could see the marvellous changes that have been wrought since the good old days when Bowling Green satisfied their ideals of a park. The sight of Central Park alone on a May day, or, in fact, on any Saturday in the spring or summer, is one that cannot be witnessed in any other city in America, and it is not surprising, therefore, that the great pleasure-ground is an objective point for visitors from all over the world. Bowling Green was the beginning of the park system, which led to a desire for Battery Park, that beautiful spot overlooking the finest harbor of the world, and to the numerous other breathing spaces which punctuate the stuffy brick-and-mortar extent of the city. The list of the city's parks, with their acreage, as taken from the records of the Park Commission, follows: Abingdon Square, .202; Battery, 21.190; Beach Street, .038; Bowling Green, .517; Bryant, 4.775; Boston Road and 164th Street, .060; Boston Road and 169th Street, .160; Central, 839.-921; Canal Street, .318; Christopher Street, .139; City Hall, 8.239; Cooper Union, .229; Cedar, 17.470; Duane Street, .108; East River, 12.546; Five Points, .114; Fourth Avenue, 5.630; Fulton Avenue and 167th Street, .200; Fulton Avenue and 170th Street, .950; Fort Washington, 12.000; Grand Street, .630; High Bridge, 23.380; Jackson Square, .227; Jeannette, .870; Manhattan Square, 19.051; Madison Square, 6.840; Morningside, 31.238; Mount Morris, 20.174; Park Avenue, 34th to 40th Street, 1.168; Riverside Park and Drive, 177.800; Stuyvesant Square, 4.229; Tompkins Square, 10.508; Union Square 3.483; Washington Square, 8.115; Corlear's Hook, 8.300; St. John's 1.700; Mulberry Bend, .552; Rutgers, .450; Van Cortlandt, 1,132.350; Bronx, 661.600; Pelham Bay, 1,756.000; Crotona, 141.650; St. Mary's, 28.700; Claremont, 38.050. CABINET WORK AND TRIM.

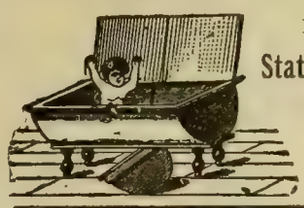
Especial attention is called to the advertisement, on page iii, of Chas. E. Matthews, of 1 Park place, to those who desire office furniture and fine cabinet work. Architects and dealers can be assured of getting not only the best value, but trade prices on these goods, and a prompt execution of any contracts (no matter how large) for cabinet work of a good grade at right price.

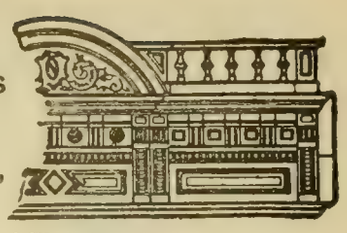
The Lawler Water Feed and Damper Regulator Co. have recently put on the market a new device styled the Lawler Thermostatic Regulator for hot water tanks, which should be brought to the attention of architects and steam and hot water heating engineers.

This device can be set to regulate the temperature of water to any desired degree, and eliminate entirely the possibility of waste through loss of steam or water. It can be applied to any make of hot water tank, and the steam supply valve to coil may be placed in any location that may be desired, thus saving both material and time in making connections.



THE STANDARD CORNICE WORKS.

In another part of the paper will be found the advertisement of the Standard Cornice Works, 97 Forsyth street. Messrs. Meister and Albonlsi are hustling young business men, and are making a strong bid for business in their line. They will be pleased to furnish estimates, and and order by mail will receive prompt attention.



FACTS ABOUT LIGHTING.

The architectural exhibition in the galleries in the St. Botolph Club, Boston, held recently, under the auspices of the Boston Architectural Club, and the Boston Society of Architects contained over 300 exhibits. The Transcript said: "It is certainly from the layman's point of view a most diverting and edifying exhibition, full of charm and variety." The old system of lighting was done away with, and Frink's patent reflectors for art galleries substituted with satisfactory results. The St. Botolph gallery is a comparatively small one, and, Mr. Frink says, presents essentially the same conditions he has found in many of the private galleries he has lighted. But the large galleries of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, in New York, the Carnegie Library, in Pittsburg, or the Corcoran Gallery, in Washington, will convince any one that the Frink system adapts itself to all conditions and dimensions. Gallery lighting, as well as the lighting of churches, theatres, and all kinds of audience rooms is a science founded upon the theory of reflection, but successfully developed only by practical experience. The reflecting and diffusing powers of various materials and surfaces, the proper angles for each particular set of conditions, and all the minor details of producing fixtures, have been Mr. Frink's study for forty years, and each year has been rich in practical experience; he has never tried to do "cheap" work, and never will. The only policy that is consistent with such a business is to produce nothing but the best. The whole object of reflection of light is to divert rays that would naturally be wasted into the direction where they will be utilized. Reflection of light is, therefore, economy of light. The best reflecting surface, the most effective angles of reflection, are the greatest economy. The slightly extra cost of fixtures that are made right is soon made up by the greater economy. Mr. Frink is always ready to make estimates and suggest the most effective and economical lighting of any special apartment, and correspondence from architects and owners who have problems that his long experience will help to a better solution will receive most careful attention. His address is No. 551 Pearl street.
